AUTHOR THANKS

Anthony Ham

Special thanks to Peter Drango, who began as my driver and guide and quickly became a friend; he taught me so much about Kenya. Thanks also to George Muriuki (Nairobi), Dea and Lisa Shupbach (Lake Naivasha), Manja Seifert (Tsavo West) and many others. Back at home, I am in awe of my three wonderful girls – Marina, Carlota and Valentina – who endure my absences with good grace and who welcome me home with unbridled joy. One day, I will take you here.

Stuart Butler

Thank you to George Muriuki as well as the ever-patient Peter Kiega for his driving up north. Massive thanks to Charlotte and Esther as well as Patrick and Meriem Simkin, Issy and Murray and Riccardo Orizio for a great time. In Lewa thanks to William T Kipsoi for superb guiding. Thanks to Jeannette Goddar for seeing what I couldn't. On the coast cheers to Ramtu, Hassan and Abdulah for driving skills.

In Malindi a huge thanks to Mick, Tony, Ken Haji, David and Georgina for sharing waves, as well as Aidan Hartley. On Manda thanks to Rachael. Cheers once again to Toby Adamson for being a fellow magician and great travel partner. Last, but not least, huge thanks and hugs to Heather and Jake for everything.

Dean Starnes

It would be wrong not to acknowledge the legacy of work from previous editions and help and assistance from authors extraordinaire Anthony Ham and Stuart Butler. Gentlemen, it was a blast.

Big ups to the team at Lonely Planet for all their help with my pesky queries, particularly Sam Trafford, David Carroll and Brigitte Ellemor.

My life was made easier by the sage advice given to me by Elanor Harrison, Toby Jones, Eugene Nijssen, John Wambua and Ibrahim O Nandi.
