

0 10 km
0 5 miles

This small canyon of striking colors and age-old geological formations boasts short hikes and beautiful mountain landscapes.

Bucolic, well-manicured hamlet on Upper Waterton Lake offering modern luxuries – especially welcome for those returning from nearby backcountry adventures.

Memorable hike that offers beautiful scenery and sweeping views.

Backed by the slopes of Mt Custer and tucked beneath the Continental Divide, this placid lake is popular with boaters and hikers looking to spot wildflowers and wildlife.

A foray to the cusp of Waterton's backcountry will leave you yearning to return.

