

© NMI Decorative Arts

The map shows a section of the River Liffey in Dublin, Ireland. The river is depicted in blue and flows from the top right towards the bottom left. Major roads are shown in yellow, and a network of smaller streets is shown in white. A grey dashed line, likely representing a railway or tram line, crosses the river and runs parallel to it. Two specific locations are marked with black circular icons containing a white '©' symbol. One is in the upper left, and the other is in the lower right. The text 'River Liffey' is written in blue across the middle of the river.

NMI Archaeology ©