Shinjuku is Tokyo's largest – and liveliest – nightlife district. There is truly something for everyone, from flashy cabarets to bohemian holes-in-the-wall.

Distance 1.5km
Duration one hour

NISHI-SHINJUKU

1 Start the evening with a round of yakitori at the historic cluster of stalls on Omoide-yokochō.

3 Kabukichō, Tokyo's red-light district, is marked by an electric red torii (gate).

7 Stroll Golden Gai, a warren of tiny alleys and narrow buildings housing hundreds of small bars.

A late-night bowl of ramen at Nagi.

6 At Don Quijote, an out-there, all-night emporium, get everything from wine to a nurse's costume.

5 Kabukichō cabaret Robot Restaurant glows bright enough to light all of Shinjuku.
