

A stylized map of Rome, Italy, showing the Tiber River and various districts. Ten red circular icons with a white 'X' are placed across the map, each corresponding to a food district. The districts are labeled with their names and descriptions of their food scene. The map uses a color palette of tan for streets, green for parks, and blue for the river.

Vatican City, Borgo & Prati

Sophisticated restaurants, delicious takeaways,
heavenly gelaterie

Villa Borghese & Northern Rome

Park cafes and smart, fashionable restaurants

Tridente, Trevi & the Quirinale

Classy neighbourhood
eateries, great gelaterie
and upmarket cafes

Centro Storico

Romantic hideaways,
old-school trattorias,
top pizzerias

Trastevere & Gianicolo

Touristy but terrific trattorias, gelaterie, bars and pizzerias

Ancient Rome

Hidden gems among the tourist traps

Monti, Esquilino & San Lorenzo

Ethnic eats, cool bars, boho restaurants

San Giovanni & Testaccio

Traditional Roman cuisine, good cheap eats

Southern Rome

Trend-setting foodie venues in ex-industrial Ostiense district