

PREK TOAL BIRD SANCTUARY

Venture to remote Prek Toal, gateway to a world-class bird sanctuary that provides refuge to some of the world's rarest large water birds, such as the milky stork and spot-billed pelican.

CARDAMOM MOUNTAINS

The Cardamom Mountains are great for adventure travel. Engage in community tourism activities across this remote region, including ecotourism initiatives at Chi Phat, Cardamom Tented Camp and Stung Areng Community Based Ecotourism.

KOH SDACH ARCHIPELAGO

Cambodia is behind Thailand when it comes to offshore island development. Use this to your advantage and explore some remote islands midway between Sihanoukville and Koh Kong.

PREAH VIHEAR PROVINCE

Prasat Preah Vihear is king of the mountain temples with an incredible cliff-top setting. Other Angkorian sights worth an adventurous detour include Koh Ker and Preah Khan.

RATANAKIRI PROVINCE

Visit Conservation International's pioneering ecotourism project to spot the rare yellow-cheeked gibbon that inhabits Veun Sai-Siem Reap Pang Conservation Area or delve deep into the interior of Virachey National Park.

MONDULKIRI PROVINCE

Elephants roam here, at least at the Elephant Valley Project where visitors can 'walk with the herd'. There are also remote Bunong minority villages, beautiful waterfalls, and gibbons and langurs in the wild.

MEKONG DISCOVERY TRAIL

This pioneering community tourism project in Kratie and Stung Treng provinces helps visitors connect with communities along the Mekong River through homestays and activities.

