GREENDEX

Thanks to the campaigning work of nongovernmental organisations, former mountaineers and Nepali activists, Nepal has caught the green bug. However, for every tour company offering environmentally friendly treks, there are a dozen more who use the word 'eco' as a sales ploy only. The following options have been selected because they meet our criteria for sustainable tourism. If you have any recommendations, email us at talk2us@lonelyplanet.com.au. For more on the environmental issues affecting Nepal see the Environment chapter (p77).
