

Are you ready for an adventure?
Two explorers, Marco and Amelia, are off to see the bright lights of the world's big cities, and they've invited you to come, too!

The best explorers need to be ready for anything. Look at the list below and add stickers to the next page to get ready to go. Check the items off the list when you've stuck them on.

MARCO

AMELIA

No visit to Bangkok, Thailand, would be complete without a trip to one of the famous floating markets nearby. Marco and Amelia have come to Damnoen Saduak — one of the most famous.

Boats are filled with piles of exotic fruit, vegetables, coconuts, and pots of hot noodle and rice dishes to sell. Add stickers to make the bustling market scene extra delicious!

Venice at carnival time is a magical place. The streets and canals are filled with people in beautiful gowns, masks, and headdresses.

Use markers to design your own marvelous mask here.

One of the best ways to get around London is to catch one of the city's famous red double-decker buses! Follow these steps to draw your own London bus.

1

First, draw the basic outline shown here in pencil. Don't worry about the wheels just yet.

2

Next, draw the two large front windows and two door shapes on the side.

3

Add the rest of the windows along the side of the bus.

4

Now add the side-view mirror, lights, destination sign, and wheels, then extra lines on the doors and windows. Finally, go over it in pen and erase the pencil.

It's busy on Westminster Bridge near Big Ben! Finish the big red bus we've started here for you.
