No trip to Hong Kong is complete without a ride on the Star Ferry, that fleet of electricdiesel vessels with names such as Twinkling Star. At any time of the day the ride, with its riveting views, must be one of the world's best-value cruises. At the end of the 10-minute journey, watch as a hemp rope is cast and caught with a billhook, just as it was in 1888 when the first boat docked. The liveliest night market in Hong Kong, Temple Street Night Market is the place people go to for cheap clothing, watches and everyday items. Remember though, marked prices should be considered suggestions - this is definitely a place to bargain. Not just that, it's also a great place to soak up the atmosphere, the aromas and tastes on offer from the dai pai dong (food stalls), occasional free Cantonese opera performances and fortune-telling.
