Why Bother

With more than one billion speakers worldwide, Mandarin is the most widely spoken language on the planet. How can you miss the chance to communicate with one in seven people on Earth?

Distinctive Sounds

In Mandarin you can change the meaning of a word by raising and lowering the pitch level (tone) on certain syllables. Mandarin has four tones (high, high-rising, high-falling and low falling-rising), plus a fifth, neutral tone.
Pinyin
Pinyin was officially adopted in 1958 as a way of writing Chinese using the Roman alphabet. Today in Chinese cities you’ll see it everywhere: on maps, road and shop signs and in brand names.

Chinese Script
Many of the basic Chinese characters are pictographs (highly stylised pictures of what they represent), but most have a ‘meaning’ element and a ‘sound’ element. Each character represents a syllable, and most words consist of two characters.

Chinglish
‘Chinglish’ (Chinese English) provides many entertaining mistranslations – eg a ‘Keep Quiet’ notice might instead read ‘the subliminal of thought has started while the noisy has stopped’.

Language Family
The term ‘Mandarin’ refers to one of the seven Chinese dialect groups and is more accurately called Modern Standard Chinese or Pǔtōnghuà 普通话 (literally ‘the common dialect’). Close relatives in the Sino-Tibetan family are the other six dialects: Gan, Hakka, Min, Wu, Xiang and Yue.

Must-Know Grammar
Mandarin doesn’t have direct equivalents of ‘yes’ and ‘no’ used in isolation. Instead, to answer the question affirmatively, repeat the verb used in the question (eg shì 是 – ‘be’). For a negative answer, add bù 不 (not) before the verb.

Donations to English
Quite a few – for example, gung-ho, Japan, ketchup, kung fu, silk, t’ai chi, tea ...
5 Phrases to Learn Before You Go

1. Where would you go for yum cha?
   哪里的早茶好？Nǎlǐ de zǎochá hǎo?
   When in China, make sure you find the right place for what has to be the signature dining experience in Chinatowns the world over.

2. Please bring a knife and fork.
   请拿一副刀叉来。Qǐng ná yī fù dāochā lái.
   Don’t be afraid to ask for cutlery at a restaurant if you haven’t quite mastered the art of eating with chopsticks.

3. Can I get a discount (for the room)?
   这（房间）能打折吗？Zhè fánjiān néng dǎzhé ma?
   In China, always bargain for a hotel room – discounts of 10% to 50% off the rack rate are the norm, available by simply asking at reception.

4. I’d like to hire a bicycle.
   我想租一辆自行车。Wǒ xiǎng zū yīliàng zìxíngchē.
   Bikes are a great option for getting around Chinese cities and tourist sites. They can also be invaluable for exploring the countryside.

5. Can you write that in Pinyin for me?
   请用拼音写。Qǐng yòng Pīnyīn xiě.
   If you find Chinese script intimidating, Pinyin (the official system for writing Mandarin in the Roman alphabet) is your next best option.

Cardinal Numbers

Numbers in Mandarin are easy to learn. Multiples of 10 are made by stating the multiple followed by 10 – so 20 is literally ‘two ten’. Two is a tricky number, generally pronounced èr unless it’s joined with a classifier, in which case it will be pronounced liàng (see classifiers/counters, page 20).

| 0  | 零  | líng |
| 1  | 一  | yī   |
| 2  | 二/两 | èr/liàng |
