with

Mark where you're off to on the map.

What are you most looking forward to on this trip?

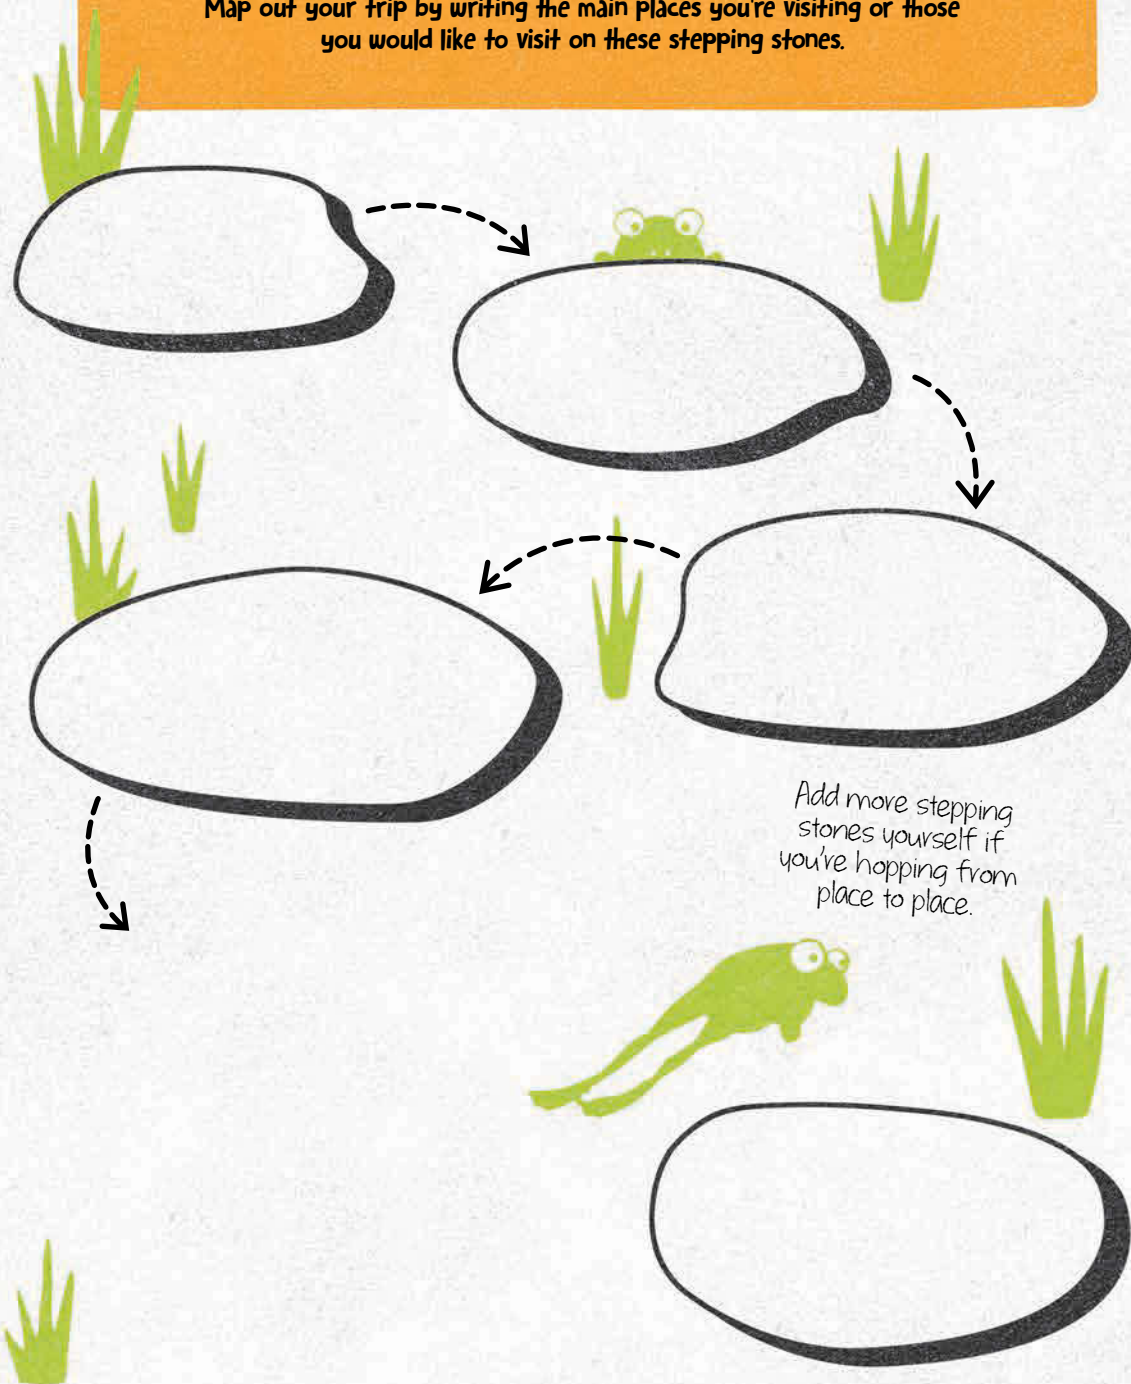

Would you like to visit the Moon?
Or do you think it might lack atmosphere?

[Empty rounded rectangular box for writing]

STEPPING STONES

Map out your trip by writing the main places you're visiting or those you would like to visit on these stepping stones.

Add more stepping stones yourself if you're hopping from place to place.

Who or what will you miss while you're away?

PACKING

TRACKING

What are you bringing with you? List or draw the clothes, gadgets and other essentials in your suitcase or backpack.

A large graphic of a green suitcase with orange accents on the handle and corners. The suitcase is open, showing two large, empty, white rectangular pages with rounded corners. These pages are intended for the user to list or draw items they are packing.

How are you going to make sure your journey is fun-filled, not dullsville?

If you could travel through time, would you go forward or back?

Blank rounded rectangular box for drawing or notes.

JOURNEY JOTTER

Setting out is exciting but journeys can be long. Keep a note of your outward journey highlights here.

BEST BREAKFAST

You might stick to the same cereal at home, but on a trip meals can be seriously strange or truly delicious. Draw the best breakfast of your trip on the plate!

THE VERDICT

What has been awesome about your trip? Write expedition high points around the stars below – the nearer the middle, the more you loved them. What will be your absolute highlight right in the middle? Food, friends, fun...or the book full of memories you're looking at right now?

Where are you going to go next time?
