LOUVRE

The Mona Lisa and the Venus de Milo are just two of the priceless treasures in the world's biggest museum – stretching 700m along the Seine – housed inside a resplendent former palace. (www.louvre.fr; place du Louvre, 1er;  Palais Royal–Musée du Louvre)

NOTRE DAME

A vision of stained-glass rose windows, gothic gargoyles and flying buttresses, Paris' glorious cathedral lies at the heart of the city. Climbing its 422 spiralling steps takes you up into its towers. (www.notredamedeparis.fr;
6 place du Parvis Notre Dame, 4e;  Cité)
