GOLDEN GATE PARK & THE AVENUES

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Melbourne, London and Oakland, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Alison Bing

Coordinating Author: North Beach & Chinatown, The Mission, SoMa & Potrero Hill, The Haight & Hayes Valley, and Golden Gate Park & the Avenues

Over 15 years in San Francisco, Alison has done everything you're supposed to do in the city and many things you're not, including falling in love on the 7 Haight bus and gorging on Mission burritos before Berlioz symphonies. Alison holds degrees in art history and international diplomacy – respectable diplomatic credentials she regularly undermines with opinionated culture commentary for radio, newspapers, foodie magazines and books, including Lonely Planet's California, USA, Coastal California, California Trips, San Francisco and San Francisco Encounter guides. Alison also wrote the Planning, Understand and Survival Guide chapters.

John A Vlahides

The Marina, Fisherman's Wharf & the Piers, Downtown & Civic Center, The Hills & Japantown, and The Castro & Noe Valley

John A Vlahides co-hosts the TV series Lonely Planet: Roads Less Travelled, screening on National Geographic Channels International. John studied cooking in Paris, with the same chefs who trained Julia Child, and he's a former luxury-hotel concierge and member of Les Clefs d'Or, the international union of the world's elite concierges.

He lives in San Francisco, where he sings tenor with the San Francisco Symphony, and spends free time skiing the Sierra Nevada. For more, see www.johnvlahides.com and twitter.com/johnvlahides. John also wrote the Sleeping and Day Trips chapters.

Top Itineraries

Day One

North Beach (p98)

 Parrots squawk encouragement as you climb Greenwich Street stairs to Coit Tower for WPA murals and 360-degree panoramas. Amble downhill through Washington Square and down Columbus past Columbus Tower, and take a breather in the redwood grove beneath the Transamerica Pyramid.

Lunch Hail dim sum carts for dumplings at City View (p109).

Chinatown (p98)

 Compare traditional and contemporary, Chinese and Chinese American artists at Chinese Culture Center, and cross the pedestrian bridge to watch fierce chess matches in progress at Portsmouth Square. Wander through temple-lined Waverly Place and notorious Ross Alley to find your fortune at Golden Gate Fortune Cookie Company. Past the pagoda-topped tea and trinket shops of Grant Ave and down poetry-paved Jack Kerouac Alley is City Lights bookstore, the home of Beat poetry. Celebrate free spirits and free speech here and at the Beat Museum across the street.

Dinner Reserve ahead for North Beach's best pasta at Cotogna (p84).

North Beach (p98)

 Prepare yourself for insane hats and razor-sharp wit at Beach Blanket Babylon, SF's most over-the-top drag satire (and that's saying something). Recap over nightcaps fit for Victorian swells and madams at Comstock Saloon.

Day Two

Golden Gate Park (p190)

 Hop the Judah to Stanyan, then walk into the park to see carnivorous plants enjoying their insect breakfasts at Conservatory of Flowers and dahlias wet with dew in the Dahlia Garden. Follow Andy Goldworthy's artful sidewalk fault lines to find faultless Oceanic masks and tower-top views at the MH de Young Museum, then take a walk on the wild side in the rainforest dome of the California Academy of Sciences. Enjoy a moment of Zen with green tea at the Japanese Tea Garden, and bliss out in the secret redwood grove at the San Francisco Botanical Garden.

Lunch Surfers hit Outerlands (p201) for grilled cheese and organic soup.

The Sunset (p190)

 Find driftwood jewelry and DIY architecture books at General Store, and artist-designed hoodies and custom surfboards at Mollusk. Beachcomb Ocean Beach up to the Beach Chalet to glimpse 1930s WPA murals celebrating Golden Gate Park, and amber sunsets glimpsed through a pint of the house-brewed ale.

Dinner Inspired organic Cal-Moroccan feasts satisfy cravings at Aziza (p198).

Japantown (p115)

 Psychedelic posters and top acts make for rock-legendary nights at the Fillmore, or you could get in the swing with the jazz greats performing nightly at Yoshi's.

Day Three

SoMa (p130)

 Fuel up with an artful latte at the cafe at the rooftop sculpture garden of SFMOMA, then plot your descent through three floors of boundary-pushing, horizon-expanding art. Explore SF's multi-culti roots at the Museum of the African Diaspora and Contemporary Jewish Museum, then find crafty new ideas at the Museum of Craft & Folk Art.

Lunch La Taqueria makes the definitive Mission burrito (p142).

The Mission (p130)

 Walk 24th St past mural-covered bodegas to Balmy Alley, where the Mission muralist movement began in the 1970s. Stop for a 'secret breakfast' (bourbon and cornflake) ice cream sundae at Humphry Slocombe, then head up Valencia to another foodie favorite, Ritual Coffee Roasters. Pause for pirate supplies and Fish Theater at 826 Valencia, and duck into Clarion Alley to see the Mission's ongoing outdoor art show. See San Francisco's first building, Spanish adobe Mission Dolores, and visit the memorial to native Ohlone who built it.

Dinner Early walk-ins may score sensational small plates at Frances (p166).

The Castro (p164)

 Sing along to show tunes pounded out on the Mighty Wurlitzer organ before shows at deco-fabulous Castro Theatre. Party boys cruise over to 440 Castro afterwards, while mixed straight/gay/male/female crowds clink glasses at Blackbird.

Day Four

Russian Hill (p115)

 Grab a leather strap on the Powell-Hyde cable car and hold on; you're in for hills and thrills. Hop off at Vallejo to follow stairway walks and side streets to four literary locations: hilltop Ina Coolbrith Park, named after San Francisco's over-the-top romantic poet; shady Macondray Lane, the backdrop for Armistead Maupin's Tales of the City; Russell St, where Jack Kerouac wrote On the Road in an attic; and Sterling Park, where sweeping bay views inspired SF's original 'King of Bohemia.'

Lunch Za (p124) features cornmeal-crusted pizza and Anchor Steam beer.

The Piers (p52)

 Cover the waterfront, beginning with newly restored underwater murals and mosaics at Aquatic Park Bathhouse. You can save the world from Space Invaders at Musée Mécanique, or enter underwater stealth mode inside a real WWII submarine: USS Pampanito. Watch sea lions cavort at Pier 39, then follow your rumbling stomach to the Ferry Building.

Dinner Try the local oysters and Dungeness crab at the Ferry Building (p86).

Alcatraz (p52)

 To end the evening with shivers, don't miss the boat for the night tour of Alcatraz. Once you return to freedom, hop on the vintage F-Market line street-car to celebrate your great San Francisco escape with bubbly at Waterbar.
