Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Melbourne, London and Oakland, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Brendan Sainsbury

Coordinating Author, Downtown, Pike Place & Waterfront, Pioneer Square & International District, Belltown & Seattle Center, Queen Anne & Lake Union, Capitol Hill & First Hill, The CD, Madrona & Madison Park, U District, Fremont & Green Lake, Ballard & Discovery Park, Georgetown & West Seattle An expat Brit from Hampshire in England, Brendan first developed an interest in Seattle in the early 1990s when he became entranced with the electric chaos of grunge. He has been a regular visitor to the city ever since moving to Vancouver, Canada, in 2004 and has been posting Seattle reviews for Lonely Planet in its biennial USA guide since 2009. When not sampling the latest Guatemalan single-origin coffee beans in a Capitol Hill cafe, Brendan likes running up mountains, traveling to anywhere he hasn't been yet, and teaching his son, Kieran, to play David Bowie songs on the piano.

Celeste Brash

Day Trips Locals have a hard time believing it, but the beauty of the Pacific Northwest is what coaxed Celeste back to the US after 15 years in Tahiti. She was thrilled to explore and imbibe the treasures of her new backyard for this book: hike snowy peaks, look for orcas and get in touch with her cowboy and Indian roots. Find out more about Celeste and her writing at www.celestebrash.com.

Top Itineraries

Day One

Pike Place Market (p40)

 Early birds catch more than worms at Pike Place Market. Arrive promptly at 9am for some real-life street theater at market roll call before wandering over to the Main Arcade to see the lippy fish throwers warming up. Spend the morning getting lost, browsing, tasting, buying and bantering with the producers, but don't miss the gum wall or Rachel the pig. To complement your own wanderings, consider a market tour with Seattle Free Walking Tours.

Lunch Join the queue at Russian bakery Piroshky Piroshky (p52).

Waterfront & Downtown (p40)

 Duck under the soon-to-be-demolished Alaskan Way Viaduct to access Seattle's waterfront. Be a tourist and head for the Seattle Aquarium on Pier 59, then become a local and jump on a Puget Sound ferry just for the ride. Save a good hour to browse the latest exhibits at Seattle Art Museum (SAM) on the western edge of downtown.

Dinner SAM's Taste Restaurant (p50) themes dishes around its art displays.

Pioneer Square (p63)

 Head to Pioneer Square for a drink in positively ancient J&M Café before hitting the Comedy Underground, where even poker-faced misérables have been known to break into uncontrollable giggles.

Day Two

Seattle Center (p76)

 Resist the lure of the Seattle Center no longer. After a cursory orientation of the complex, opt first for its newest and (arguably) best sight, Chihuly Garden & Glass. If you buy a joint-admission ticket you can zip up the adjacent Space Needle afterwards for equally dazzling views.

Lunch Divert into Belltown for lunch at Seattle's best bakery, Macrina (p84).

Seattle Center (p76)

 After lunch, enjoy glittering Elliott Bay views and giant, imaginative art at the Olympic Sculpture Park before returning to the Seattle Center for an afternoon of rock-and-roll nostalgia at EMP Museum. Anyone who has ever picked up an instrument will require at least an hour to twiddle guitar knobs in the Sound Lab on the 3rd floor. Stroll along 5th Ave to your dinner venue. If you can walk past Top Pot Hand-Forged Doughnuts without going inside you deserve an abstinence medal.

Dinner Arrive early for happy hour and Italian food at Barolo Ristorante (p87).

Belltown (p76)

 Start off with a game of pinball in Shorty's. If you like your bars divey, stay put. To up the hipster rating a touch, head north for cocktails at Black Bottle before checking out what band's playing at the Crocodile.

Theo Chocolate Factory (p143)

Day Three

Pioneer Square (p63)

 Start the morning like a true Seattleite with a latte in Zeitgeist, possibly the city's best indie coffee shop. Cross the road, admiring 1890s redbrick architecture, and visit the entertaining, educational and free museum, the Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park. If there's time, take a gilded-age elevator up the Smith Tower before lunch.

Lunch Hit the International District for Vietnamese food at Green Leaf (p71).

International District (p63)

 In the Asian-flavored ID, call in on its most famous sight, the Wing Luke Asian Museum, and its most esoteric, the Pinball Museum (for a quick game), before imbibing tea and Japanese-American history in the Panama Hotel

Dinner Join Seattle's locavore culture at Capitol Hill's Sitka & Spruce (p112).

Tea & Coffee House. From here, climb up through genteel First Hill to Capitol Hill.

Capitol Hill (p105)

 Spontaneous evenings in Capitol Hill start early and go on till late. Work up the Pike-Pine corridor with an espresso in Victrola Coffee Roasters, a martini in Sun Liquor Distillery and a microbrew in Elysian Brewing Company. If the entertainment hasn't already found you, check out what's on at Neumo's

Day Four

Lake Union (p93)

 Time for a journey through Seattle's outer neighborhoods. Start the morning in South Lake Union, where a lakeside park hosts the Museum of History & Industry, a roller-coaster journey through Seattle's past. If there's time afterwards, pop into the Center for Wooden Boats to plan future sailing sorties.

Lunch Dine at Serious Biscuit (p101), owned by celebrity chef Tom Douglas.

Fremont (p139)

 Stroll through Westlake along the Cheshiahud Loop, or flag a bus to take you to Fremont. Soon after crossing the Fremont Bridge, you'll spy Waiting for the Interurban and, within the space of a few blocks, several other whimsical sculptures. It would be foolish to leave Fremont without a visit to Theo Chocolate Factory. Get to know the locals after hitting the Fremont Brewery before hitting the Dinner Go French at Bastille Cafe & Bar (p153) on Ballard Ave NW.

Burke-Gilman Trail (or getting a bus) to Ballard.

Ballard (p149)

 If weather permits, stroll out to the Hiram M Chittenden Locks for sunset, before returning to Ballard Ave to experience the neighborhood's self-contained nightlife. Whiskey flows in new
