Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Melbourne, London and Oakland, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Karla Zimmerman

Coordinating Author: Medieval Centre & Red Light District, Nieuwmarkt, Old South, Oosterpark & South Amsterdam During her Amsterdam travels, Karla admired art, bicycled crash-free, ate an embarrassing number of Droste chocolates and bent over to take her jenever (Dutch gin) like a local. She has been visiting Amsterdam since 1989, decades that have seen her trade space cakes for stroopwafels (syrup waffles), to a much more pleasant effect. Based in Chicago, Karla writes travel features for newspapers, books, magazines and websites. She has authored or co-authored several Lonely Planet guidebooks covering the USA, Canada, Caribbean and Europe. Karla also wrote Welcome to Amsterdam, What's New, Need to Know, Top Itineraries, If You Like, Museum Top Tips, By Bike, Canals and the Survival Guide chapters.

Sarah Chandler

Western Canal Ring, Southern Canal Ring, Jordaan & the West, Vondelpark & Around, De Pijp, Plantage, Eastern Islands & Eastern Docklands Sarah fell in love with Amsterdam during university, though it was only later, as a local, that she mustered sufficient bravery to master the deceptively tricky Dutch art of cycling. When she's not frolicking in the Vondelpark, drinking koffie verkeerd (milky coffee) canalside at Café 't Smalle or indulging her cinematic obsessions at the Pathé Tuschinskitheater, Sarah works as a writer, actress and lecturer at Amsterdam University College. She loves calling one of her favourite neighbourhoods on earth – Amsterdam's Latin Quarter, De Pijp – home. Sarah also wrote Month by Month, With Kids, Like a Local, For Free, Day Trips and the Understand chapters.
