OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Melbourne, London and Oakland, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Alexis Averback

Alexis Averback lived at McMurdo Station through a summer and winter, experiencing both townie life and incredible boondoggles. She observed diving emperor penguins and Weddell seals from beneath the ice. She reveled in multi-week sunsets and sunrises reflecting off mountains and sea ice. Midwinter she camped in an ice trench watching the aurora australis. Alexis explored ice caves, flew over Mt Erebus, and, ultimately, made it to the geographic South Pole. And she made friends.

Antarctica changed her life irrevocably. A travel writer for 20 years, Alexis has crossed the Pacific by sailboat, written books on her journeys through Asia and the Americas, and now lives on the island of Hydra. She also specializes in Greece and France for Lonely Planet.

Antarctica inspired her to paint, because some things are simply beyond words. See her work at www.alexisaverback.com.
