WRITER THANKS

Paul Clammer

In Dhaka, thanks to Mostafizur Rahman Jewel for his assistance and friendship, and to my co-author Anirban Mahapatra for coffee-fuelled strategy meetings. In Chittagong, thanks to Didarul Islam Didar for his advice, and help with hill tribes permits. In Cox's Bazar, thank you to Jafar Alam for the insights into the Bangla surf scene. At my desk, long-time editor Joe Bindloss deserves thanks and patience for more than the usual number of questions as new systems were rolled out. Finally, thanks and love to Robyn, who wasn't a sidekick for this trip, but remains the best one everywhere else.

Anirban Mahapatra

A million thanks to fellow author Paul Clammer, destination editor Joe Bindloss and everyone at Lonely Planet for making this fantastic book come to life. To the wonderful people of Bangladesh, including Enayet, Murshed, Taufiq, Rafiq, Swapan, Jameel and Halim for their invaluable support along the way. To friends in Dhaka, including Farhan, Thomas, Roseanne, Keya, Arnob, Samir and Nadeem for sharing their own insights into Bangladesh. And most of all, to Roshni, for her unending encouragement, patience and support.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing, Dublin and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Paul Clammer

Paul has contributed to over 25 Lonely Planet guidebooks, and worked as a tour guide in countries from Turkey to Morocco. In a previous life he may even have been a molecular biologist. For Lonely Planet he's covered swathes of the sub-continent from both sides of the Khyber Pass to Rajasthan and Kashmir, so was pleased to finally add Bangladesh to his tally. Follow @paulclammer on Twitter.

Anirban Mahapatra

A Bangla speaker by birth, a folk music aficionado by taste and a kachchi biryani lover by choice, Anirban has made repeated forays into the green landscape of Bangladesh. He has experienced its amazing variety, from riding a boat into tiger territory in the Sundarbans and socialising with wandering Bauls in Kushtia, to sipping aromatic tea in Sylhet and exploring ancient citadels in Rajshahi and Rangpur. Anirban has also written for multiple editions of Lonely Planet's India guidebook.
