Top Itineraries

Day One

La Rambla & Barri Gòtic (p56)

 On day one spend the morning exploring the narrow medieval lanes of the Barri Gòtic. Have a peek inside La Catedral – not missing its geese-filled cloister – and stroll through the picturesque squares of Plaça de Sant Josep Oriol and Plaça Reial. Discover Barcelona's ancient roots in the fascinating Museu d'Història de Barcelona. Before lunch have a wander down La Rambla to take in the passing people parade.

Lunch Cafè de l'Acadèmia (p73) serves outstanding Catalan fare.

La Ribera (p92)

 In the afternoon, wander over to La Ribera, which is packed with architectural treasures. Take a look inside the majestic Basílica de Santa Maria del Mar. At the Museu Picasso, beautifully set inside conjoined medieval mansions, you can spend a few hours taking in the early works of one of the great artists of the 20th century.

Dinner Elbow your way up to the bar for gourmet tapas at Cal Pep (p103).

La Ribera (p92)

 Before having a late dinner (as is the custom in Spain), catch a show inside the Palau de la Música Catalana, one of the great Modernista masterpieces of Barcelona. Afterwards end the night with drinks at El Xampanyet.

Day Two

L'Eixample (p122)

 On day two start with a morning visit to La Sagrada Família, Gaudi's wondrous work in progress. It's worth paying a little extra for a guided tour (or audio guide) for a deeper understanding of Barcelona's most famous sight.

Lunch The fabulous Cinc Sentits (p136) serves up creative perfection.

L'Eixample (p122)

 After lunch, explore more of the great Modernista buildings by taking a stroll down L'Eixample's Passeig de Gràcia. Have a look at the three most famous buildings that make up the Manzana de la Discordia. Then visit one of Gaudi's house museums on the street – either Casa Batlló or La Pedrera further up the avenue.

Dinner Enjoy excellent wines and tasty sharing plates at Viblioteca (p162).

Camp Nou, Pedralbes & La Zona Alta (p165)

 In the evening catch a football match at Camp Nou, the home of the top-ranked FC Barcelona. Amid the roar of the crowds, prepare for a serious adrenalin rush, especially if Barça is playing arch-rivals Real Madrid. Afterwards head back to L'Eixample for a drink at the classy Les Gens Que J'Aime before moving on to the big beats at City Hall.

Day Three

Barceloneta & the Waterfront (p109)

 On your third day in Barcelona it's time to take in the lovely Mediterranean. Start the morning with a stroll, jog or a bike ride along the waterfront. Beach-facing restaurants and cafes provide refreshment along the way.

Lunch Join seafood-loving locals at always-buzzing Can Maño (p117).

Barceloneta & the Waterfront (p109)

 Stroll through Barceloneta, stopping for a peek inside the Mercat de la Barceloneta. Afterwards visit the Museu d'Història de Catalunya and peel back the centuries on an interactive journey into Catalan history.

La Rambla & Barri Gòtic (p56)

 At night catch a live band inside the Gothic quarter. Harlem Jazz Club and Jamboree are good bets for jazz and world music. If you still have energy, check out a few bars in the neighbourhood, including Ocaña, which has a beautiful setting on Plaça Reial.

Day Four

Montjuïc (p177)

 Start the day with a scenic cable car ride up to Montjuïc, followed by a stroll past flower and sculpture gardens to the Museu Nacional d'Art de Catalunya (MNAC). Take in the magnificent Romanesque frescos, vivid Gothic paintings and works by 17th-century Spanish masters.

Lunch O'Gràcia! (p161) is a charming neighbourhood spot for Catalan fare.

Gràcia (p154)

 After getting a taste of Montjuïc, hop on the metro up to Gràcia and wander through its enchanting village-like streets. Cafes, bookshops and vintage shops all make for some worthwhile exploring. The bars surrounding its plazas come to life around sundown.

El Raval (p79)

 Take in the bohemian side of Barcelona in El Raval. Browse record shops and vintage stores, enjoy a live band at the Jazz Sí Club, or watch an indie feature at the FilMOTECA de Catalunya. Finish the night over a few housemade vermouths at La Confiteria, or at dance favourite Moog for something livelier.

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Regis St Louis

Coordinating Author; La Rambla & Barri Gòtic; Barceloneta & the Waterfront; Camp Nou, Pedralbes & La Zona Alta Regis first fell in love with

Barcelona and Catalonia on a grand journey across Iberia in the late 1990s. Since then he has returned frequently, learning Spanish and a smattering of Catalan, and delving into the rich cultural history of this endlessly fascinating city. Favourite memories from his most recent trip include earning a few scars at a wild correfoc (fire run) in Gràcia, watching brave castellers build human towers at the Santa Eulàlia fest, and feasting on navallas (razor clams), pop á feira (Galician-style octopus) and carxofes (artichokes) all across town. Regis is also the author of Discover Barcelona, and he has contributed to Spain, Portugal and dozens of other Lonely Planet titles. He lives in Brooklyn, New York. Regis also wrote the majority of the Plan Your Trip chapters, the Understand Barcelona and Survival Guide sections, and cowrote the Sleeping chapter.

Sally Davies

El Raval; La Ribera; La Sagrada Família & L'Eixample; Gràcia & Park Güell; Montjuïc, Poble Sec & Sant Antoni Sally landed in Seville in 1992 with a handful of pesetas and five words of Spanish, and, despite a complete inability to communicate, promptly snared a lucrative number handing out leaflets at Expo '92. In 2001 she settled in Barcelona, where she is still incredulous that her daily grind involves researching fine restaurants, wandering around museums and finding ways to convey the beauty of this spectacular city. Sally also wrote the Entertainment and Shopping chapters and cowrote the Sleeping chapter.

Andy Symington

Day Trips Andy hails from Australia but has been living in Spain for over a decade, where, to shatter a couple of stereotypes of the country, he can frequently be found huddled in subzero temperatures watching the tragically poor local football team. He has authored and coauthored many Lonely Planet guidebooks and other publications on Spain and elsewhere; in his spare time he walks in the mountains, embarks on epic tapas trails, and co-bosses a rock bar.
