WRITER THANKS

Alex Egerton

Big thanks go out to Oscar 'Gallina' Gilede for outstanding driving/nature-guiding in tough terrain, and to Carito for the permission. Also big ups to the many supremely accommodating Belizeans all over the country, in particular Debbie Morrison in the north; Elly out on the cays; and all at the Turneffe Atoll Sustainability Association. Finally a big shout to Nick, Olga, Juan Lasso, Paul, Bailey and Mara Vorhees.

Paul Harding

Many people in Belize helped with advice, information or just a good chat over a cold Belikin. Thanks in particular to Vitali and Nick around Belmopan; Mike, James and Daniel in San Ignacio; Eric and friends in Hopkins; and Ernesto and Aurora in Maya Center. Big thank you to Bailey at Lonely Planet and my legendary co-author Alex. Most of all, and as always, thanks to Hannah and Layla at home for your love and patience.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Alex Egerton

Belize District, Northern Cayes, Northern Belize A journalist by trade, Alex has been coming to Central America for almost two decades and has spent extended periods residing in colorful towns along the Caribbean. He has a keen interest in the unique culture of the region, especially in the expressive music and dance of traditional communities, and is constantly working on polishing up his punta moves. When not on the road for work, Alex can probably be found at home in the mountains of Colombia planning his next escape to the Northern Cayes and craving fryjacks smothered with habanero sauce. Alex also wrote the Understand and Survival Guide sections.

Paul Harding

Cayo District, Southern Belize As a writer, photographer and person with chronic itchy feet, Paul has traveled a good part of the world in the past two decades, usually in search of adventure, islands and beaches. Belize ticks all the boxes: Caribbean coast and cays on one side, remote jungle on the other. On this research trip, Paul river-tubed through caves, zip-lined over jungle canopies, explored Mayan ruins, snorkeled on the reef, sampled hot sauces and inspected many cabanas. He has contributed to more than 50 Lonely Planet guides to countries as diverse as Australia, Iceland, Vanuatu and India. Paul also wrote the Plan section.

Daniel C Schechter

Guatemala A native New Yorker, Daniel has been poking around Latin America for so long it sometimes makes more sense to him than his place of birth. After living in Colombia and Puerto Rico, he called Mexico home for more than a decade. During that time he spanned the Mundo Maya on various forays, discovering and writing about such places as Campeche, Calakmul and Tikal, and cultivating an enduring interest in Classic Maya history. Daniel currently lives in the Netherlands, where he blogs on cycling (<http://netherlandsbikeways.blogspot.nl>).
