AUTHOR THANKS

Alan Murphy

A big thanks to my travel companion and friend Smitzky for his patience, advice and adventurous spirit (and for not getting further traffic infringements). Also I tip my hat to Anthony, my coauthor, for his professionalism. In Namibia there are too many to thank but special mention to Almuth Styles in Swakopmund whose assistance was much appreciated. And to the honorary consul in Windhoek for making me legal again after all my ID was stolen. To my gorgeous wife, Alison, who married me just before this research trip, you are my strength and my home.

Anthony Ham

Andy Raggett of Drive Botswana was an invaluable source of information at all stages of the journey. Thanks also to Mike Romeo of Explorer Safaris in Johannesburg, Will Gourlay for sending me here and Alan Murphy for coordinating the book with wisdom. Thanks also to Glyn Maude, Keitumetse Ngaka, Olefile Sebogiso, Nick Jacobsen, Monika Schiess and to Jan and Cleo in Khutse. Special thanks to Jan and Ron for their joyful spirit and utter integrity. To my three girls Marina, Carlota and Valentina: Os quiero con todo mi corazón.

Trent Holden & Kate Morgan

There are some HUGE thank yous to give out for the help we received while researching. First up thanks to Joy in Vic Falls and Kim in Livingstone for all your assistance in getting some of the nitty gritty stuff down pat. Thanks to the Seremwe brothers, James and George, for all their guidance and assistance, Sally Wynn for her unparalleled knowledge of Kariba and around, Choice Mushunje from Zimbabwe Parks, Gordon Adams, Ann Bruce and Jane High from the east, and Val from Bulawayo. Thanks also to all the travellers we met, including John and Linda Hutton for all the suggestions. Finally, huge thanks to the production team, particularly Will Gourlay, Glenn van der Knijff and coordinating author Alan Murphy.
