WRITER THANKS

John Lee

Special thanks to Maggie for ensuring my sanity and delivering copious amounts of tea during the write-up for this project. Thanks also to our feline companion Max for grooming my beard on a regular basis. And cheers to my buddy Dominic for joining me on that elongated Vancouver Island road-trip. Sincere apologies to all my other Vancouver friends and family for being stuck to my keyboard for so long: I'm more than ready for a beer or two now.

Korina Miller

Thank-you to Alex Howard for inviting me to join this project and to the team of travel-thirsty authors who helped make it great. Thank-you to the many Albertans who shared their stories, insight and love for their province. Thanks to Kajsa Erickson for acquainting me with Calgary's wilder side during the height of Stampede; to my parents and daughters, Simone and Monique, for camping out in the Rockies with me; and to Kirk and Bing for keeping the home fires burning. And finally, thanks to my chiropractor, Dr Bob Mabey for straightening me out after driving 4500km in 10 days.

Ryan Ver Berkmoes

The number of folks to thank outnumber Kermode bears but here's a few: Ben Greensfelder, my fearless co-pilot who kept the supply of good beer flowing. In Prince Rupert, I am beyond indebted to Bruce Wishart for literally food, folks and fun. And words can't repay the car shuttle service. In Dawson, Tony and the gang almost made me forget my visit. Finally, to Alexis Ver Berkmoes, who I love even more than the giant beaver.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

John Lee

British Columbia, Plan, Understand, Survival Guide Originally from the UK, John moved to British Columbia to study at the University of Victoria in the 1990s. Eventually staying and moving to Vancouver, he started a freelance travel-writing career in 1999. Since then, he's been covering the region and beyond for Lonely Planet plus magazines, newspapers and online outlets around the world. Winner of numerous writing awards, he's very active on Twitter and a weekly columnist for Canada's the Globe and Mail national newspaper; catch up with him at www.johnleewriter.com.

Korina Miller

Alberta Korina grew up on Vancouver Island and has been exploring the globe independently since she was 16, visiting or living in 36 countries and picking up a degree in Communications and Canadian Studies, an MA in Migration Studies and a diploma in Visual Arts en route. As a writer and editor, Korina has worked on nearly 60 titles for Lonely Planet and has also worked with LP.com, BBC, The Independent, The Guardian, BBC5 and CBC, as well as many independent magazines, covering travel, art and culture. She has currently set up camp back in Victoria, soaking up the mountain views and the pounding surf.

Ryan Ver Berkmoes

British Columbia, Yukon Territory Ryan Ver Berkmoes has written more than 110 guidebooks for Lonely Planet. He grew up in Santa Cruz, California, which he left at age 17 for college in the Midwest, where he first discovered snow. All joy of this novelty soon wore off. Since then he has been traveling the world, both for pleasure and for work – which are often indistinguishable. He has covered everything from wars to bars. He definitely prefers the latter. Ryan calls New York City home. Read more at ryanverberkmoes.com and at @ryanvb.
