WRITER THANKS

Nick Ray

A huge and heartfelt thanks to the people of Cambodia, whose warmth and humour, stoicism and spirit make it a happy yet humbling place to be. Biggest thanks are reserved for my lovely wife, Kulikar Sotho, and our children, Julian and Belle, as without their support and encouragement the adventures would not be possible. Thanks also to Mum and Dad for giving me a taste for travel from a young age.

Thanks to fellow travellers and residents, friends and contacts in Cambodia who have helped shaped my knowledge and experience in this country. There is no room to thank everyone, but you all know who you are, as we meet for anything from beers to ecotourism conferences regularly enough.

Thanks also to my co-author Jess Lee for going the distance to ensure this is a worthy new edition. Finally, thanks to the Lonely Planet team who have worked on this title. The author may be the public face, but a huge amount of work goes into making this a better book behind the scenes and I thank everyone for their hard work.

Jessica Lee

On the road, huge thanks to fellow author Nick, Ritthy, Martin, dive supremos Simon and Tom, Mr Jack, and 'other Jess' and Raph, and kudos to Leap, Arun, Heng and Lim for being some of the most brilliant mototrips I've ever had the luck to come across. Back home, a big thanks to the best house sitter in the world, Shannon Wang. Most of all, thank you to the people of Cambodia who always make a journey here a joy.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Coordinating writer, Phnom Penh, Siem Reap, Temples of Angkor, Eastern

Cambodia. A Londoner of sorts, Nick comes from Watford, the sort of town that makes you want to travel. He lives in Phnom Penh with his wife, Kulikar, and children, Julian and Belle. He has written for countless guidebooks on the Mekong region, including Lonely Planet's Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos & Northern Thailand and Myanmar books, as well as Southeast Asia on a Shoestring. When not writing, he is often out exploring the remote parts of Cambodia as a location scout and manager for the world of television and film, including everything from Tomb Raider to Top Gear. Motorbikes are a part-time passion and he has travelled through most of Indochina on two wheels.

Jessica Lee

South Coast, Northwestern Cambodia. Jess first journeyed to Cambodia in the late '90s and fell for its vine-wrapped temples and palm-studded rice-field vistas. She's criss-crossed the country several times since then and this welcome return to the nation saw her exploring remote temples in some of Cambodia's most far-flung corners and checking out the fast-changing scenes upon the sand of the South Coast's islands. Jess is also an author on Lonely Planet's Turkey, Egypt and Vietnam titles. She blogs about travel at www.roadessays.wordpress.com.
