WRITER THANKS

Korina Miller

Thank you to Alex Howard for inviting me to join this project and to the team of travel-thirsty authors who helped make it great. Thank you to the many Albertans who shared their stories, insight and love for their province. Thanks to Kajsja Erickson for acquainting me with Calgary's wilder side during the height of Stampede; to my parents and daughters, Simone and Monique, for camping out in the Rockies with me; and to Kirk and Bing for keeping the home fires burning. And finally, thanks to my chiropractor, Dr Bob Mabee for straightening me out after driving 4500km in 10 days.

Kate Armstrong

Many thanks to Alexander Howard at LP plus the many locals who gave nothing but Acadian and Maritimes hospitality. Three cheers to those who advised on local tourism: Alison Aiton and Stacey Russell (Fredericton), Jillian MacKinnon (Saint John), Jillian Somers and Colette McLaughlin (Moncton) and Janice Arseneault (Edmunston). Finally, merci to all the helpful Canadian enthusiasts along the way who know that their region is a special one.

James Bainbridge

Thanks to everyone who helped on my long journey from Ottawa's political spires up the hazy shores of Lake Superior. The friendly souls throughout Ontario are too numerous to mention, but old mate Ciprian and new friend Shayne get a special shout out, as does David Peterson for stabling their horse. Back in Cape Town, thanks to my ever-wonderful family, and to everyone who turned up to celebrate my 40th while I was writing up Ontario.

Anna Kaminski

A massive thanks to Alex for entrusting me with three fascinating regions, and to all who helped me along the way, particularly Crystal in Yellowknife, Christine, Don and Patrick in Fort Smith, Gina and John in Fort Providence, Ted Grant for the amazing day in Nahanni, Rachel and Li in Winnipeg, Kylik and Sarah in Inuvik, the wonderful Parks Canada people (Bronwyn, Karen, Jovan) in Iqaluit, Sherry in Val-leyview, and Sebastian from Dawson City for picking up a stranded hitchhiker.

Adam Karlin

Thanks to my co-authors, particularly Anna, for feedback and advice; Alexander, our editor, for the same and inviting me on the project; the two French guys in the Gaspé for their podcast skills; Zach, Kate and Dan for roadtripping me into the Eastern townships; Andy and Marie for being wonderful hosts in Montréal; Rachel, who is a perfect partner for discovering the Laurentians; Sanda, for giving Google hangout pep talks. This chapter on Québec is for Gizmo.

John Lee

Special thanks to Maggie for ensuring my sanity and delivering copious amounts of tea during the write-up for this project. Thanks also to our feline companion Max for grooming my beard on a regular basis. And cheers to my buddy Dominic for joining me on that elongated Vancouver Island road trip. Sincere apologies to all my other Vancouver friends and family for being stuck to my keyboard for so long; I'm more than ready for a beer or two now.

Carolyn McCarthy

Many thanks go out to the good people of Newfoundland for their warm welcome and hospitality. My gratitude goes out to Carolyn Cook for her camping gear and adventure know-how, Bernadette Walsh for her total expertise, Terri Coles for her journalistic insights, Kathleen Kearns for her tips, and my hosts Elissa and Mark.

Phillip Tang

Super thanks to Stephen Hu (Ren Jie) for photography, Hamilton geese, backpack goose-chase, dawn language geek-out, inspections, shoppers, and a hot-pot of Toronto smarts. Thanks James Salo for the incredible hospitality and insight spanning Toronto to Tobermory. Thanks Sherman Jones for sharing Elora, Fergus, Kitchener, and travel tales. Thanks to Alexander Howard and Imogen Bannister for sanity checks.

Ryan Ver Berkmoes

The number of folks to thank outnumber Kermodé bears but here's a few: Ben Greensfelder, my fearless co-pilot who kept the supply of good beer flowing. In Prince Rupert, I am beyond indebted to Bruce Wishart for literally food folks and fun. And words can't repay the car shuttle service. In Dawson, Tony and the gang almost made me forget my visit. Finally, to Alexis Ver Berkmoes, who I love even more than the giant beaver.

Benedict Walker

Heartfelt thanks to my ever-patient and supportive mother, Trish Walker, to the folks at LP, especially Alexander Howard for giving me this opportunity and my editors, Kristin Odijk and Saralinda Turner. In Canada, love and gratitude to Cherly, the Cowies and Mr Mikey Brown. To my mates Carl, Matt and Baker Paul in NS and to Brittany, Kaylin and Rae-Anne in PEI: thanks all for your friendship, encouragement and local knowledge.

Adam Karlin

Québec Born in Washington DC and raised in the rural Maryland tidewater, Adam has been exploring the world and writing about it since he was 17, and considers it a blessedly interesting way to live one's life – and also good fun.

John Lee

Vancouver, Southern British Columbia Originally from the UK, John moved to British Columbia to study at the University of Victoria in the 1990s. Eventually staying and moving to Vancouver, he started a freelance travel-writing career in 1999. Since then, he's been covering the region and beyond for Lonely Planet plus magazines, newspapers and online outlets around the world. Winner of numerous writing awards, very active on Twitter and a weekly columnist for Canada's The Globe and Mail national newspaper, catch up with him at www.johnleewriter.com and @johnleewriter.

Carolyn McCarthy

Newfoundland & Labrador Carolyn specializes in travel, culture and adventure in the Americas. She has written for National Geographic, Outside, BBC Magazine, Boston Globe and other publications. A former Fulbright fellow and Banff Mountain Grant recipient, she has documented life in the most remote corners of Latin America. Carolyn gained her expertise by researching guidebooks in diverse destinations. She has contributed to over 30 guidebooks for Lonely Planet, including Colorado, USA, Argentina, Chile, Panama, Peru and the USA National Parks guides. She is also the author of Lonely Planet's Trekking in the Patagonian Andes.

Phillip Tang

Toronto, Southern Ontario Phillip grew up on typically Australian pho and fish'n'chips. A degree in Chinese and Latin-American cultures launched him into travel and writing about it for Lonely Planet's Canada, China, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Peru and Vietnam guides. Phillip has made his home in Sydney, Melbourne, London and Mexico City. His travels include most countries in Europe, much of Asia and Latin America, as well as the greatest hits of North America. Ryan Ver Berkmoes

Saskatchewan, Northern British Columbia, Yukon Territory Ryan has written more than 110 guidebooks for Lonely Planet. He grew up in Santa Cruz, California, which he left at age 17 for college in the Midwest, where he first discovered snow. All joy of this novelty soon wore off. Since then he has been traveling the world, both for pleasure and for work – which are often indistinguishable. He has covered everything from wars to bars. He definitely prefers the latter. Ryan

Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island Born in Newcastle, Australia. Ben holds notions of the beach core to his idea of self, though he's traveled hundreds of thousands of kilometers from the sandy shores of home. Ben was given his first Lonely Planet guide (Japan) when he was 12. Two decades later, he'd write chapters for the same publication: a dream come true. A communications graduate and travel agent by trade, Ben whittled away his twenties gallivanting around the globe. He thinks the best thing about travel isn't as much about where you go as who you meet: living vicariously through the stories of kind strangers enriches one's own experience. Ben has also written and directed a play, and toured Australia managing the travel logistics for top-billing music festivals.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.
