SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travellers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-travelled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to your submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – and the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don't want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. ## AUTHOR THANKS

Simon Richmond

Many thanks to all the people who made my time in Cape Town such a pleasure and continuing education, including: fellow author Lucy and Shawn, Brent Meersman, Iain Harris, Lee Harris, Toni Shina, Nicole Biondi, Alison Foat, Sally Grierson, Patrick Craig, Cathy Marston, Tony Elvin, Rashiq Fataar, Zayd Minty, Daniel Sullivan, Sheryl Ozinsky, Bulelwa Makalima-Ngewana, Juma Mkwela, Gamidah Jacobs, Cindy Taylor, Iain Manley, Marco Morgan and Caroline Jordan.

Lucy Corne

Thanks to Cathy Marston for her encyclopaedic knowledge of every winery in the Western Cape, to Simon for his help and suggestions, as always; to Hakon, Scott, Debbie and James for the tips and to everyone at the various tourist information offices, particularly those in Hermanus, Knysna, Mossel Bay and Robertson. Thanks most of all to Shawn, for coping wonderfully as a single father while I was on the road.

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Simon Richmond

Coordinating Author; Cape Town Simon has been hooked on Cape Town since first visiting in 2001 to research Lonely Planet's South Africa, Lesotho & Swaziland guide and the Cape Town guide. He's returned for every edition since, exploring practically every corner of the Cape and surrounding area, taking full advantage of a travel writer's licence to meet a cast of inspirational locals and indulge in the fruits of the land – not least of which are its delicious wines! An award-winning journalist and photographer, Simon has written scores of titles for Lonely Planet and other publishers, as well as contributing features to many magazines and newspapers around the world. Follow him on Twitter, Instagram and at www.simonrichmond.com.

Lucy Corne

Day Trips & Wineries, The Garden Route Since she first visited South Africa in 2002, Lucy has been hooked and has returned on six occasions, spending time in over 200 towns across the country. She moved to Cape Town in 2010 and spends her weekends exploring the wineries, restaurants and breweries of the Western Cape. Lucy has become one of the Cape's leading beer experts – a role she's been practising for since university. She blogs about the South African beer scene at www.brewmistress.co.za.
