OUR READERS

Many thanks to the travelers who used the last edition and wrote to us with helpful hints, useful advice and interesting anecdotes:

Seth Blumenthal, Su Elliot, Elizabeth Ham-bourger, Fey Martin, Cornelia Pabijan, Hilary Phillips, Valentina Sarracco, Bárbara Viana took the time to share their favorite local spots. Thanks most to Eric Markowitz, the world's best partner-for-life, who indulges my beer- and donut-filled ramblings with an endless supply of good humor.

HYDE PARK & SOUTH SIDE

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writer

Karla Zimmerman

Karla lives in Chicago, where she has been eating deep-dish pizza (Giordano's preferred) and yelling at the Cubs for more than 25 years. She never tires of the city's sky-high architecture, global neighborhoods and character-filled dive bars, though she does tire of its wind-bashed winters. Karla writes about travel for books, magazines and websites. She has written several Lonely Planet guides, covering the USA, Canada, Caribbean and Europe. To learn more, follow her on Instagram and Twitter (@karlazimmerman).
