AUTHOR THANKS

Andrea Schulte-Peevers

First up, a big thank you to Anna Tyler for giving me a shot at this book. A heartfelt thank you also to my husband David for being such good company while tooling around the island, and to Miriam Bers for her fruitful referrals. Big kudos to all the good folks who showed us amazing hospitality and generously shared their expertise and local insights, including the Papadospiridaki family, Vaggelis Alegakis, Nikos Miliarakis, Ioannis

Giannoutsos, Marianna Founti-Vassi and Moin Sadiq.

Chris Deliso

Many Cretans provided good tips and good company. These include Manolis (Paleohora), Stavroula (Kissamos-Kastelli), Manolis, Rena and Ioanna (Hania), plus Leftheris and Giannis (Iraklio). The Lonely Planet crew, which helped steer the good ship Crete into harbour, also has my heartfelt appreciation: commissioning editor Anna Tyler, ever-patient coordinating author Andrea Schulte-Peevers, and the production and map-making teams. Na eiste kala!

Des Hannigan

My thanks to the many friends and passing strangers, both local and nonlocal, who have helped and advised me on my wanderings through the 'Great Island' over the years. They are too numerous to name, but I hope they have all been aware of my gratitude and affection.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Melbourne, London and Oakland, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Andrea Schulte-Peevers

Coordinating Author; Plan Your Trip; Rhythmo; Iraklio; Accommodation; Crete Today; The Cretan People; Music & Dance; Fine Arts, Literature & Film; Cretan Cuisine; Survival Guide Andrea has travelled the distance to the moon and back in her visits to around 70 countries, but she'll forever cherish the memory of first setting foot in Crete some 15 years ago and being instantly charmed by its people, the rich tapestry of their traditions and their long, proud history. Andrea lived in Bochum (Germany) and London before moving to Los Angeles, getting a degree from UCLA and embarking on a career in travel writing. She has written or contributed to some 60 Lonely Planet books, including the Greece guide. Her current home is Berlin.

Chris Deliso

Hania, Accommodation, History, Minoan Art & Culture Chris was drawing maps of the Aegean by the age of five, and 20 years later he ended up in Greece while labouring away on an MPhil in Byzantine Studies at Oxford. Ever since studying Modern Greek in Thessaloniki in 1998, he has traveled frequently in Greece, including a year in Crete – more or less his spiritual home. For this book, Chris enjoyed healthy amounts of fresh fish, traditional music and sunburn on the island's remote beaches. His personal website is www.chrisdeliso.com.

Des Hannigan

Hiking & Outdoor Activities, Water Sports, Travel with Children, Lasithi, Accommodation, Wildlife & Birdwatching Des has been in and out of Crete for the past 20 years. Early visits were spent wandering the more remote mountains and south coast but were soon extended to the entire island. He has worked off and on in Greece for many years and has covered the Cycladic, Ionian and Saronic Islands for Lonely Planet's Greece guide. He lives in the far west of sunny Cornwall, England – an almost-Crete, except for the troublesome Atlantic Ocean.
