OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Melbourne, London and Oakland, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Brendan Sainsbury

Coordinating Author, Havana, Sancti Spiritus Province, Ciego de Ávila Province, Camagüey Province, Las Tunas Province, Holguín Province, Granma Province, Santiago de Cuba Province, Guantánamo Province Brendan is a British freelance writer who lives in British Columbia, Canada. He first visited Cuba in the 1990s and returned in 2002, after a spell as a teacher in Angola, to work as a travel guide leading cultural and cycling trips around the country. He researched and wrote his first Lonely Planet Cuba guide in 2006, with his 3-month-old son in tow. Since then he has produced three more Cuba guides, written countless Cuba-related newspaper articles, given presentations and been interviewed by everyone from Rick Steves to USA Today. When not writing and researching, Brendan likes to relax by running unaided across deserts, playing flamenco guitar and teaching his son to cross-country ski. He has also contributed to Lonely Planet guides to Spain, Italy, Canada and the USA.

Luke Waterson

Artemisa & Mayabeque Provinces, Isla de la Juventud (Special Municipality), Pinar del Río Province, Matanzas Province, Cienfuegos Province and Villa Clara Province Cruising the countryside in wheezing Cadillacs and Plymouths, smoking several dozen cigars, experiencing two drag shows, sinking a myriad mojitos and learning some (tentative) salsa moves while researching this edition helped Luke fall in love with Cuba all over again. He was first smitten with the country back in 2004, on a backpacking trip that coincided with the withdrawal of the dollar from circulation by Castro.

Highlights since then have included bathing in a waterfall on a restricted military zone and seeing sea turtles nest. Travel-wise, Luke's passions are Latin America, Eastern Europe and Britain – yes, Britain: musings on his journeys to these places, and advice on what and what not to do in them, can be found at www.lukewaterson.co.uk.
