AUTHOR THANKS

Josephine Quintero

Josephine would like to thank all the helpful folk in the various CTO tourist offices, in particular Alexis Christodoulides from Larnaka, Selin Feza from Lefkosia and Niki Alitoupoulou from Lemesos. She would also like to thank Athina Papadoupoulou from the Nicosia Master Plan Office for her invaluable contribution. Thanks, too, to fellow author Matt Charles and to all those involved in the title from the Lonely Planet London- and Melbourne-based offices, as well as to Robin Chapman for sharing a bottle of wine after many a long day on the road.

Matthew Charles

Special thanks go to my Stephanie and Jordan (HOF), Andreas for near-perfect advice, Anita and the Christodoulou family, Mr C Smilas and Dino Smilas, Aki and Chris Kyriacou, Parthenoula Michaels, Jason Constantine, the Florent family, Nikos Afxentiou, Viki Kyriakopoulos, Cath Lanigan, Brandon Presser, Josephine Quintero, Mum and James Botterill, Amber, Kyri (on his path), Dad and the rest of my extensive family. I owe all of you much and hope one day to square the ledger entirely.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Melbourne, London and Oakland, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Josephine Quintero

Coordinating Author; Lemesos & the South Coast, Pafos & the West, Lefkosia, North Nicosia

Josephine has visited Cyprus many times and finds that the island continually throws up surprises, although there is one constant: the genuine friendliness of the locals, on both sides of the Green Line. Highlights during this trip included sipping coffee and chatting to locals (including, inevitably, the village priest) in simple village tavernas in the Akamas Heights. She also discovered some soul-stirring art in Lefkosia galleries and Byzantine churches, and rediscovered the irresistible appeal of the traditional meze, especially when washed down with local Cypriot wine from one of the growing number of wineries in the Troödos.

Matthew Charles

Troödos Massif, Larnaka & the East, Kyrenia & the Northern Coast, Famagusta & the Karpas Peninsula

Matthew first travelled to Cyprus in 1997 to seek out his ancestral roots in Pafos. He ended up falling in love with the island and staying for four years, before returning to his native Australia. Since then he has returned to the island and made Larnaka his home. When he is not writing for Lonely Planet he can be found dreaming up plots, frappé in hand, on one of the many beaches, or playing basketball in the sunshine.
