SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travellers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-travelled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to your submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don't want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. For a copy of our privacy policy visit lonelyplanet.com/privacy.

WRITER THANKS

Oliver Berry

As always, huge thanks to the many people who helped out with advice, suggestions and tips for new material, with an extra special shout out for Justin Foulkes, Sarah Bennett, Mark Sharham, Nigel Mortimer, Laura Hicks, Heidi Fitzpatrick and Another Place. Extra thanks to James Smart for captaining the ship, to Susie Berry for apple tree shopping and much-needed lunches, and to Rosabella for many happy days exploring Kernow with me.

Belinda Dixon

Researching a place is a real joint effort. It's the result of B&B, bar and hotel staff who share their recommendations; tourist office workers who share their knowledge; random strangers who share their time and countless kindnesses. Huge thanks to all. And, again, to James Smart for the gig, Lonely Planet's behind-the-scenes teams, and fellow authors and adventurers for humour, wisdom and travellers' tales.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Oliver Berry

Cornwall Oliver is a writer and photographer from Cornwall. He has worked for Lonely Planet for more than a decade, covering destinations from Cornwall to the Cook Islands, and has worked on more than 30 guidebooks. He is also a regular contributor to many newspapers and magazines, including Lonely Planet Traveller. His writing has won several awards, including The Guardian Young Travel Writer of the Year and the TNT Magazine People's Choice Award.

Oliver also wrote the Plan Your Trip and Understand chapters. His latest work is published at www.oliverberry.com.

Belinda Dixon

Devon Only happy when her feet are suitably sandy, Belinda has been (gleefully) travelling, researching and writing for Lonely Planet since 2006. It's seen her marvelling at Stonehenge at sunrise, scrambling up Italian mountain paths, horse riding across Donegal's golden sands, kayaking down south Devon rivers, gazing at Verona's frescoes, and fossil hunting on Dorset's Jurassic Coast.

Belinda is also an adventure writer – which has seen her trek the Himalayas, scale Scottish mountains in a snow storm, climb Dartmoor crags, surf and swim in England's winter seas, become addicted to SUP and sleep out under the stars. See her blog posts at <https://belindadixon.com>.
