Behind the Scenes

SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travellers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-travelled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to postal submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don't want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. For a copy of our privacy policy visit lonelyplanet.com/privacy.

OUR READERS

Many thanks to the travellers who used the last edition and wrote to us with helpful hints, useful advice and interesting anecdotes:

AUTHOR THANKS

Fionn Davenport

Thanks to Cliff, Sasha and all the boffins at Lonely Planet who answered my every query – no matter what time of the day or night – in a timely and helpful fashion. Thanks to all those Dubliners – native-born and imported, friends and strangers alike – who offered suggestions and guided me in the right direction, recommending cafes, restaurants and things to do in this beloved city of ours. Without their enthusiasm and knowledge I would never have discovered half the things I found for this guide.

THIS BOOK

This 9th edition of Lonely Planet's Dublin guidebook was researched and written by Fionn Davenport, who also worked on the previous editions. This guidebook was commissioned in Lonely Planet's London office, and produced by the following:
