Why Go?

From windswept beaches to cosmopolitan seaside towns and legendary surfing spots, Victoria's coastline has stunning vistas, cool-climate wineries and the culture-packed city of Melbourne. It's a diverse coast: fairy penguins march up and down beaches in the popular tourist destination of Phillip Island, while Victoria's west coast faces on to Bass Strait and attracts surfers and those searching for the iconic Twelve Apostles. Heading up the southeast coast from the hiking paradise of Wilsons Promontory is a long, cruisy expanse of beach that meets up with a popular, activity-filled lakes system around Lakes Entrance (Australia's largest inland waterway system). There are more stunning national parks on the approach to the Victoria–New South Wales border.

When to Go

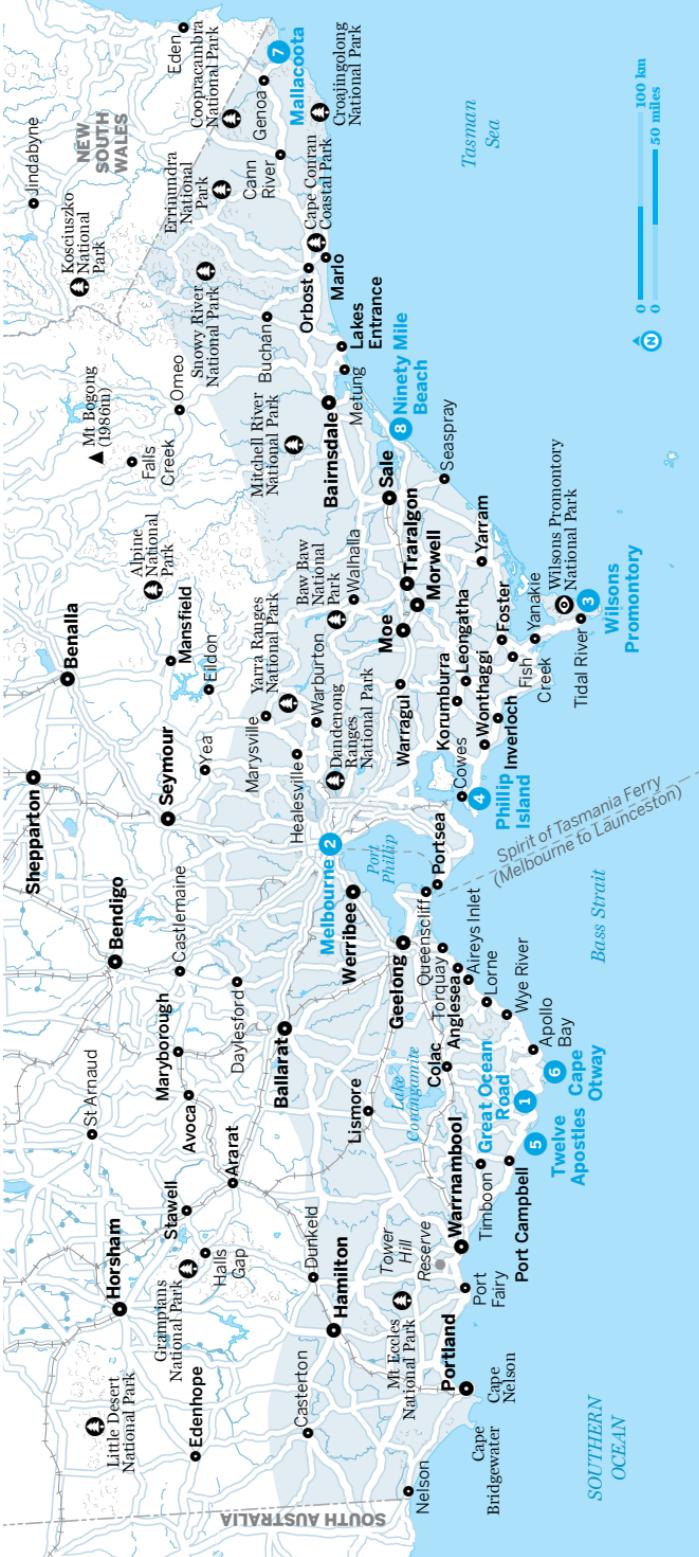

Melbourne

Dec & Jan
Beaches are packed during summer; book accommodation months ahead.

Feb & Mar
Quieter time; late summer weather can be particularly hot.

Apr–Nov
April has arguably the best weather, leading into cold nights and crisp winter days.
