WRITER THANKS

Greg Bloom

Big thanks to pop for tagging along and lending anecdotes, insight and much bar research. To Callie, who couldn't wait until after my deadline to arrive: you were so worth the sleepless nights. To her mama, Windi, T.Y. for keeping it together while I was away. To Callie's sister, Anna, thanks always for keeping me sane. On the road, thanks to Nikolai (Minsk) and Leonid (Chişinău), and to Mike T and Fabian M, respectively, for setting me up with them.

Mark Elliott

Countless kind Bosnians (and Hercegovinians, too) offered more help than I have space to acknowledge. Enormous thanks to the great philosophers at Savat, to Kate Hunt for so much emotion, Wangdi for the space and sustenance, and to Harriet Einsiedel, Izzy and Shashka for the amazing coincidences. Love and endless gratitude beyond words to my unbeatable family.

Anita Isalska

My research in Slovakia was hugely enriched by the people I met on the road. I'm especially thankful for the tips and insights from Slavo Stankovič, Marek Leskovjanský, Erik Ševčík, Jiri Sikora, the incredibly helpful tourist office teams in Bratislava, Žilina and Martin, and pretty much everyone in friendly Košice. Big hugs to Normal Matt for being an invaluable write-up morale-booster.

Tom Masters

Many thanks to Valmir, Emin, Esra, Granit, Shemsi and Lorik in Pristina, to Shpendi, Joard, Mateo, Renato and Rita in Tirana, and to dozens of hostel owners around both countries who supplied such helpful information, especially to Walter in Gjirokastra, Catherine in Valbona, Roza in Shkodra, and the crews at Driza's House in Prizren, Tirana Backpacker's Hostel in Tirana and Hostel Saraç in Peja. Special thanks also to Jimmy in Theth for being a good Samaritan when I had car trouble!

Lorna Parkes

A huge thank you to the friendly people of Macedonia who helped guide me through bad signposting, lost trail markers, GPS black holes and the basics of Cyrillic. Your warmth and good nature is a testament to your country. Equal thanks go to my husband, Rob, without whom I would not have been able to do this job, both mentally and physically, and my beautiful son, Austin, who patiently waited for my return.

Leonid Ragozin

Huge thanks to Olexiy Skrypnik, Serhiy Savchuk and Yevhen Stepanenko for helping me to explore Lviv. Another jumbo plane of gratitude goes to Lena Lebedinskaya, Ruslan Popkov and their wonderful friends in Odesa. Finally, thank you, Masha Makeeva, for enduring my long absences.

Tamara Sheward

Every time I go to Serbia, the hvala list gets outrageously longer; if I keep this up, I'll be trying to cram 7.13 million names into this tiny space. To whittle down the numbers somewhat, I'll offer my undying gratitude to the Lučić and Eremić families, Srdjan (the lifesaver) and Gordana, the NS Kitchen Collective, the wonderful folks of Šekspirova, and Brana Vladislavjevic at LP. My Dušan and Masha, may 10000 trubači bands forever toot in your honour: poljupci zauvek!

Tim Richards

Poland Tim is a travel writer whose work has appeared in a variety of newspapers, magazines and websites. He also researches and writes guidebooks for Lonely Planet. Tim lived in Egypt for two years, and Poland for a year, while teaching English as a foreign language in the mid-1990s. Nowadays he lives in the city centre of Melbourne, Australia, with his wife, Narrelle Harris.

Simon Richmond

Journalist and photographer Simon Richmond has specialised as a travel writer since the early 1990s and first worked for Lonely Planet in 1999 on their Central Asia guide. He's long since stopped counting the number of guidebooks he's researched and written for the company, but countries covered including Australia, China, India, Iran, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Mongolia, Myanmar (Burma), Russia, Singapore, South Africa and Turkey. For Lonely

Planet's website he's penned features on topics from the world's best swimming pools to the joys of Urban Sketching - follow him on Instagram to see some of his photos and sketches. Simon contributed to the Plan and Survival Guide chapters

Montenegro & Serbia After years of freelance travel writing, rock'n'roll journalism and insalubrious authorship, Tamara leapt at the chance to join the Lonely Planet ranks in 2009. Since then, she's worked on guides to an incongruous jumble of countries including Montenegro, Australia, Serbia, Russia, the Samoas, Bulgaria and Fiji. She's written a miscellany of travel articles for the BBC, The Independent, Sydney Morning Herald et al; she's also fronted the camera as a documentary presenter for Lonely Planet TV, Nat Geo and Al-Jazeera. Tamara's based in far northern Australia, but you're more likely to find her roaming elsewhere, tattered notebook in one hand, the world's best-travelled toddler in the other.

Contributing Writers & Researchers

Carolyn Bain (Iceland & Slovenia)

Steve Fallon (Hungary, Slovenia & Romania)

Anna Kaminski (Hungary)

Anja Mutić (Croatia)

Andy Symington (Estonia, Latvia & Lithuania)

Neil Wilson (Czech Republic)

Mark Elliott

Bosnia & Hercegovina Having already lived and worked on five continents, Mark started writing travel guides in the pre-Internet dark ages. His first work, Asia Overland, was a ludicrously over-ambitious opus covering a whole continent and designed to aid impecunious English teachers make the trip home to Europe from Japan with a minimal budget. It was one of the first guides to help backpackers across the then-new states of the former USSR.

Elliott has since written, or co-written, around 60 other travel books, while acting as a travel consultant, occasional tour leader, video presenter, interviewer and blues harmonicist.

Anita Isalska

Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania & Slovakia Anita is a travel journalist, editor and copywriter whose work for Lonely Planet has taken her from Greek beach towns to Malaysian jungles, and plenty of places in between. After several merry years as an in-house editor and writer – with a few of them in Lonely Planet's London office – Anita now works freelance between the UK, Australia and any Balkan guesthouse with a good wi-fi connection. Anita writes about travel, food and culture for a host of websites and magazines. Read her stuff on www.anita-isalska.com.

Tom Masters

Albania & Kosovo Dreaming since he could walk of going to the most obscure places on earth, Tom has always had a taste for the unknown. This has led to a writing career that has taken him all over the world, including North Korea, the Arctic, Congo and Siberia. Despite a brief spell living in the English countryside, Tom has always called London, Paris and Berlin home. He currently lives in Berlin and can be found online at www.tommasters.net.

Hugh McNaughtan

Lithuania A former English lecturer, Hugh swapped grant applications for visa applications, and turned his love of travel into a full-time thing. A long-time castle tragic with an abiding love of Britain's Celtic extremities, he jumped at the chance to explore Wales, from the Cambrian Mountains to the tip of Anglesey. He's never happier than when on the road with his two daughters. Except perhaps on the cricket field....

Lorna Parkes

Macedonia Londoner by birth, Melburnian by palate and ex-Lonely Planet staffer in both cities, Lorna has spent more than 10 years exploring the globe in search of the perfect meal, the friendliest B&B, the best-value travel experience, and the most spectacular lookout point – both for her own pleasure and other people's. She's discovered she writes best on planes, and has contributed to numerous Lonely Planet books and magazines. Wineries and the tropics (not at the same time!) are her go-to happy places. Follow her @Lorna_Explorer.

Leonid Ragozin

Latvia, Russia & Ukraine Leonid studied beach dynamics at the Moscow State University, but for want of decent beaches in Russia, he switched to journalism and spent 12 years voyaging through different parts of the BBC, with a break for a four-year stint as a foreign correspondent for the Russian Newsweek. Leonid is currently a freelance journalist focusing largely on the conflict between Russia and Ukraine (both his Lonely Planet destinations), which prompted him to leave Moscow and find a new home in Riga.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Mark Baker

Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Romania & Slovenia Mark is a freelance travel writer with a penchant for offbeat stories and forgotten places. He's originally from the United States, but now makes his home in the Czech capital, Prague. He writes mainly on Eastern and Central Europe for Lonely Planet as well as other leading travel publishers, but finds real satisfaction in digging up stories in places that are too remote or quirky for the guides. Prior to becoming an author, he worked as a journalist for The Economist, Bloomberg News and Radio Free Europe, among other organisations. Instagram: @markbakerprague Twitter: @markbakerprague

Greg Bloom

Belarus & Moldova Greg is a freelance writer, tour operator and travel planner based out of Siem Reap, Cambodia, and Manila, Philippines. Greg began his writing career in the late '90s in Ukraine, working as a journalist and later editor-in-chief of the Kyiv Post, an English-language weekly. As a freelance travel writer, he has contributed to some 35 Lonely Planet titles, mostly in Eastern Europe and Asia. In addition to writing, he now organises adventure trips in Cambodia and Palawan (Philippines) through his tour company, Bearcat Travel.

Marc Di Duca

Croatia, Poland & Ukraine A travel author for the last decade, Marc has worked for Lonely Planet in Siberia, Slovakia, Bavaria, England, Ukraine, Austria, Poland, Croatia, Portugal, Madeira and on the Trans-Siberian Railway, as well as writing and updating tens of other guides for other publishers. When not on the road, Marc lives between Sandwich, Kent and Mariánské Lázně in the Czech Republic with his wife and two sons.

Peter Dragicevich

Croatia & Estonia After a successful career in niche newspaper and magazine publishing, both in his native New Zealand and in Australia, Peter finally gave into Kiwi wanderlust, giving up staff jobs to chase his diverse roots around much of Europe. Over the last decade he's written literally dozens of guidebooks for Lonely Planet on an oddly disparate collection of countries, all of which he's come to love. He once again calls Auckland, New Zealand his home – although his current nomadic existence means he's often elsewhere.
