Why Go?

At the crossroads of central Europe and the Atlantic, the Rhineland and the Mediterranean, grand old Lyon is France's third-largest metropolis and its gastronomic capital. Savouring lavish dishes and delicacies in timeless, checked-tableclothed bouchons (small bistros) or cutting-edge eating spaces creates unforgettable memories – as do Lyon's majestic Roman amphitheatres, its cobbled Unesco-listed old town, the romantic parks and the rejuvenated riverfront, just for starters.

Beaujolais produces illustrious wines, while the picturesque hilltop village of Pérouges turns out traditional sugar-crusted tarts. Downstream, the Rhône forges past centuries-old Côtes du Rhône vineyards yielding some of France's most respected reds, Valence's pâtisseries filled with historic shortbread, and Montélimar's artisan nougat factories, eventually reaching the rugged Gorges de l'Ardèche, where the Ardèche River tumbles to the gates of Languedoc and Provence.
