Why Go?

True, a tan is easier to come by along the Mediterranean, but when it comes to culture, cuisine, beer, shopping and dramatic views of land and sea – not to mention good old-fashioned friendliness – the home territories of the Ch'tis (residents of France's northern tip) and the Picards compete with the best France has to offer. In Lille and French Flanders, a down-to-earth Flemish vibe mixes easily with French sophistication and savoir faire. In Picardy and the Somme, WWI memorials and cemeteries marking the front lines of 1914 to 1918 often render visitors speechless with their heartbreakingly beauty. Nearby, the underrated cities of Arras, Amiens and Laon captivate with their Gothic and Flemish architectural treasures, while the hearts of nature lovers will soar along the sublime Côte d'Opale and the estuaries of the Baie de Somme. Just outside greater Paris, Compiègne preserves the dazzle of Napoléon III's Second Empire.
