SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travelers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-traveled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to your submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don't want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. For a copy of our privacy policy visit lonelyplanet.com/privacy.

AUTHOR THANKS

Jennifer Rasin Denniston

Thank you to Alex and Bridget, the South Rim backcountry office, Grand Canyon rangers, and to Brian Mildenstein for his help with outdoor gear and clothes. Especially thanks to my husband, Rhawn, who shares my love for the road and indulges my passion for research trips, and to Anna and Harper. Finally, thanks to my extended family for our North Rim trip a couple years ago – it was awfully nice to share one of my favorite places with you all.

Bridget Gleeson

Thanks to my diligent co-author Jennifer Rasin Denniston for sharing her regional knowledge and helping me to navigate the North Rim. A special thanks to the National Park Service Rangers in Grand Canyon National Park and Glen Canyon National Recreation Area – whether at formal lectures at Grand Canyon Lodge or guided hikes around Lake Powell, your enthusiasm and expertise added so much to my experience.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Jennifer Rasin Denniston

South Rim, Around South Rim Jennifer and her husband spend months every year road-tripping with their daughters and their golden retriever. The Grand Canyon is a favorite spot and a regular destination – they've ridden mules down the North Kaibab, cycled along the South Rim, relaxed at rim-side cabins and hiked to countless overlooks and off-the-beaten-track delights. Outside the park, they've camped in the Kaibab, volunteered at Best Friends Animal Sanctuary, rafted through Glen Canyon, and hunkered down in Flagstaff and Sedona. When not traveling, they live in Iowa City, where Jennifer earned her Masters in American Studies and taught writing at University of Iowa. She writes regularly on USA and family travel for Lonely Planet. Jennifer also wrote the Plan Your Trip section, Clothing & Equipment and Directory A–Z chapters.

Bridget Gleeson

North Rim, Around North Rim, Colorado River Bridget has written about a number of national parks in South America for Lonely Planet; she was happy to return to her home country for this edition of Grand Canyon National Park. Though she's stayed in memorable hotels all over the world, Grand Canyon Lodge on the North Rim is her current favorite. Bridget also wrote the Understand the Grand Canyon section, and Transportation and Health & Safety chapters.
