

Lake District & Northern England

INSPIRATIONAL LANDSCAPES DELIVER INSPIRATIONAL DRIVES. And this swathe of northern England has long been a muse to many. Wordsworth, the Brontës and Beatrix Potter all drew on its natural splendour, and every bend in the road still reveals extraordinary views. In the west, the Lake District National Park gifts you the classic Lakes experience: craggy hilltops, glittering water and mountain tarns. Point the car east to discover the pretty villages and wilderness moors of Yorkshire's Dales. Head still further east to encounter historic York and a coast full of charm. To the north lie thriving Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Northumberland's otherworldly beaches and the Roman remains of Hadrian's Wall.
