

Southern & Eastern England

TEMPTING TRAILS FAN OUT ALL AROUND LONDON.

After revelling in the capital's world-class sights, it's time to take to the road. Within an hour or two you're cruising down country lanes en route to fairy-tale castles and some of England's loveliest historic homes.

In this corner of the country, road trips are peppered with superb heritage sights. Spectacular cathedrals are a short hop from rejuvenated resorts; university cities are just a quick trip from imposing baronial piles.

Whether you're cresting rolling chalk ridges, meandering beside salt marshes or tracing trails down rustic lanes, these are irresistible drives.
