AUTHOR THANKS

Korina Miller

An enormous thank you to Kirk and my mum and dad for minding the fort while I was away and making it possible for me to take this project on. Thank you to my fabulous daughters, Monique and Simone, for letting me work and also encouraging me to take breaks. Thank you to Brana at LP for her support and to my co-authors for their insights and camaraderie. A warm efharisto to all of the people I met on the road – both locals and travellers – who shared their stories, knowledge and enthusiasm for Greece and were unwaveringly hospitable despite such difficult times. And thanks to Bing the loyal coonhound for keeping me company while I burned the midnight oil.

Kate Armstrong

I am constantly humbled by the generosity of the Greek people in tough times. Efharisto poli, as always, to the Zotos family in Nafplion, to Yiannis at Alsos House for your knowledge and for sharing so much, to Alex Groth in Makrinita for welcoming me regardless of time and distance, and to SB Barker for your Herculean friendship and driving skills. (I'll never catch up on the Omega intake.) Finally, to Brana – you're the best, as is the LP team and my fellow team of authors.

Alexis Averbuck

Boundless gratitude to Alexandra Stamopoulou for her INSPIRATION. She travels with me everywhere. Ryan Ver Berkmoes was a peachy road companion and an aces navigator on unmarked Cretan tracks. Thanks to Ramona for an insider's take on Gavdos. Big cheer for Korina, Kate and Richard, who contributed so much to the Crete chapter. Applause for Brana: conscientious, informed and compassionate editor. Margarita, Kostas, Zisis, Anthy and Costas made Athens home. Efharisto poli to those who welcomed me so warmly around Crete, the Saronic Gulf and Athens.

Carolyn Bain

Efharisto poli to Brana Vladislavljevic for a wonderful gig, and to Team Greece for sterling work. Across the Cyclades, hundreds of kind, generous locals (and visitors) answered my questions, engaged in conversation, fed me (oh god, did they feed me!) and showed me the meaning of heartwarming Greek filoxenia. Sincere thanks to all of them. Thanks to old friends Fiona and William Reeve for fun on Santorini, and to my favourite co-traveller, Kelvin Adams, for three weeks of ace company and dedicated research of beaches and blue domes.

Michael Stamatios Clark

Ευχαριστώ to all who made my ferry-hopping through the Greek islands a trip from the start. Special thanks to my splendiferous family, Janet, Melina and Alexandros, and to the editorial team of Brana Vladislavljevic and Korina Miller for cheerful support throughout. In the Sporades islands, many thanks to Chrysanthi, Amanda, Heather, Pakis, Alexandra, Georgos and Mahi, Makis, Bessie, Gisela; in the Aegean, thanks to Anastasia, Theofilos, the Fouskas family, Demetra and Vassilis, Naya and Petros, and Tasos, Margarita and Kostas.

Anita Isalska

Thank you to every shepherd who mimed driving directions, and every guesthouse owner who ushered me inside for tsipouro. Big thanks especially to the team at Arta's Archaeological Museum and Central Macedonia's tourism department, and Helen Tarbet for translations and insights. Thanks also to Richard Waters and Trent Holden for seasoned authorly advice. Bear hugs to Joe Revill, Jessica Crouch and Jane Atkin for cheering me on. Heartfelt thank yous to Normal Matt, for more than I can list.

Anna Kaminski

I would like to thank Brana for entrusting me with these chapters, my fellow scribes and everyone who enhanced my journey, particularly my mum for sharing two weeks on the road with me and being such an able research assistant; Mina of Antares; Byron in Monemvasia; Maria and Panos in Dimitsana; George in Kalavryta; Nikos in Kardamyli; Alexis and Ryan on Hydra; and Alexander in Nafplio.

Greg Ward

Thanks to the many wonderful people who make travelling in the Dodecanese such a pleasure, and thanks above all to my wife, Sam Cook, for sharing the fun.

Richard Waters

Special thanks to Michael in Corfu and Leonidas at Pachis travel. Also to Lily Alicabiotis. There are many Greek people who made my journey easy at what were difficult times for them, so my thanks to all. Thanks too to Korina Miller and Alexis Averbuck, my coordinating authors, for all their help and patience, and to Brana Vladislavljevic, my destination ed, for sending me out there.

Michael Stamatios Clark

Northeastern Aegean Islands, Evia & the Sporades Michael's Greek roots go back to the village of Karavostamo on the Aegean island of Ikaria, home of his maternal grandparents who emigrated to America. His first trip to Greece was as a deck-hand aboard a Greek freighter, trading English lessons for Greek over wine and backgammon. Since then, he has become a Greek citizen, visits the islands often and enjoys rembetika and retsina. He has also worked on Lonely Planet guides to Burma (Myanmar), New York and Hawaii.

Anita Isalska

Northern Greece Anita is a travel journalist, editor and freelance copywriter. Formerly a digital editor at Lonely Planet's London office, she flew the coop to write the world. As well as Lonely Planet, Anita writes for CNN Travel, Rough Guides, BBC Travel, Escapism and more, especially about the Balkans and Eastern Europe, adventure and wildlife travel. She's never happier than when roaming Soviet-era ruins or researching macabre folklore. Check out more of her writing on www.anitaaisalska.com. Anita also wrote the Outdoor Activities chapter.

Anna Kaminski

Peloponnese The product of a Classical education and a Hellenophile since discovering Myths and Legends of Ancient Greece at the age of five, Anna has been coming back to Greece repeatedly since a memorable school trip back in 1997 to explore ancient ruins, hike its mountains and dive in the Aegean. She was thrilled to return to the myth-rich Peloponnese to explore its furthest corners and firmly believes that southern Mani is one of the most remarkable places on earth. Anna also wrote the Ancient Greek Culture chapter.

Greg Ward

Dodecanese Having first visited Greece as an InterRailing teenager, Greg Ward (www.gregward.info) has been returning ever since, and honeymooned on Symi. He has written books and articles about the Greek islands for many publishers and newspapers.

Richard Waters

Ionian Islands Richard is an award-winning journalist and writes about Greece for the Daily Telegraph, the Independent and Sunday Times Travel Magazine. He lives with his family in the Cotswolds but his spiritual home is in the islands of Greece where he first went as a boy in 1974. Since then he has been more than 20 times, and is most at home sat in a kafenio talking about myths, digging into freshly caught calamari and island hopping. As ever his admiration goes out to the people of Greece who, despite unimaginably difficult times, remain among the friendliest on the planet.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Korina Miller

Coordinating Author, Crete Korina first ventured to Greece as a backpacking teenager, sleeping on ferry decks and hiking in the mountains. Since then, she's found herself drawn back to soak up the timelessness of the old towns and drink coffee with locals in seaside kafeneio. Korina grew up on Vancouver Island and has been exploring the globe independently since she was 16, visiting or living in 36 countries and picking up a degree in Communications and Canadian Studies and an MA in Migration Studies en route. Korina has written nearly 40 titles for Lonely Planet and also works as a children's writing coach. Korina also wrote Plan Your Trip (except for Outdoor Activities), Understand Greece (except for Ancient Greek Culture) and Survival Guide.

Kate Armstrong

Central Greece Having studied history and fine arts, Kate headed to Greece aeons ago to view a kouros, and fell in love with the country. The Pythia at Delphi told her she'd return; she has, frequently. For this edition she climbed rock pinnacles at Meteora and tackled donkey paths in the Pelion. She devoured kilos of seafood, several sheep, thousands of kilometres and was constantly astonished by the Aphrodite-style she received mid-Greece crisis.

Alexis Averbuck

Athens & Around, Crete, Saronic Gulf Islands Alexis lives in Hydra, takes regular reverse R&R in Athens, and makes any excuse she can to travel the isolated back roads of her adopted land. She is committed to dispelling the stereotype that Greece is simply a string of sandy beaches. A travel writer for two decades, Alexis has lived in Antarctica for a year, crossed the Pacific by sailboat and written books on her journeys through Asia and the Americas. She's also a painter –

Carolyn Bain

Cyclades Melbourne-born Carolyn worked on her first guidebook for Lonely Planet back in 2000, and it involved some serious island-hopping around Greece. There began two addictions: writing guidebooks, and the Greek islands. Fifteen years later, this trip fed those addictions over a glorious two-month stint, in which Carolyn visited all the Cyclades. She has now visited 50 Greek islands – and has way too many favourites. Read more at carolynbain.com.au.
