Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Melbourne, London and Oakland, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Piera Chen

Coordinating Author, Central, Wan Chai & the Northeast, Kowloon, Macau

Born to a Shanghaiese father and a Pekinese mother in Hong Kong, Piera is a writer, editor and translator who divides her time between Hong Kong, Běijīng, Vancouver and various exotic holiday destinations, real and imagined. She is an avid traveller, a devoted mother and a passionate collector of life experiences.

Piera coauthored the previous edition of this book, as well as Lonely Planet's Hong Kong Encounter and China guidebooks. While researching for this edition, one of her greatest joys was constantly challenging herself to see familiar landscapes with borrowed eyes.
