

Southeast Iceland

2

The mighty Vatnajökull ice cap dominates the Southeast, its huge rivers of frozen ice pouring down steep-sided valleys towards the sea, like icing on a cake. Vistas are vast and otherworldly.

TRIP HIGHLIGHTS

227 km

Route F985

Take a hair-raising snowmobile ride, 840m above sea level

140 km

Skaftafell

The jewel in the crown of Vatnajökull National Park

START
Vík

192 km

Jökulsárlón

Boat around the ice sculptures of a captivating lagoon

165 km

Ingólfshöfði

Tour an offshore promontory rich in panoramas and birdlife

10

Höfn
FINISH

3–4 DAYS

272KM / 169 MILES

GREAT FOR...

BEST TIME TO GO

Hiking from June to September; ice caves from mid-November to March.

ESSENTIAL PHOTO

The glowing blue icebergs of Jökulsárlón ice lagoon.

BEST FOR FOODIES

Tuck into locally caught langoustine in Höfn.