

Kenmare River A boat in the river's tranquil waters

WELCOME TO IRELAND

In all likelihood, you've come to experience Ireland of the postcard. The exquisite peninsulas of the southwest, the brooding loneliness of Connemara and the dramatic wildness of County Donegal. You'll also find it around the lakes of Counties Leitrim and Roscommon and the undulating hills of the sunny southeast.

Scenery, history, culture, bustling cosmopolitanism and the stillness of village life – you'll find all of this along the roads covered by the 34 drives in this book. You'll visit blockbuster attractions and replicate famous photo ops. But there are plenty of surprises too – and they're all within easy reach of each other.

Whether you want to drive through the wildest terrain or sample great food while hopping between spa treatments, we've got something for you. And if you've only got time for one trip, make it one of our eight Classic Trips, which take you to the very best of Ireland. Turn the page for more.
