Orlando Crowcroft

I would like to thank the staff and volunteers at the Cinema Guest House and the Freedom Theatre in Jenin for their insights and advice on their city – past, present and future. Yazeed Abu Khdeir in Jerusalem, my fixer and friend and a partner on West Bank road trips too numerous to mention. Layla Torres in Bethlehem. All the staff at Area D Hostel in Ramallah and International Friends Youth Hostel in Nablus; my homes away from home during the research of this book. Hazem Balousha and Heidi Levine, who looked after me in Gaza. Lastly every West Bank taxi driver, coffee seller or shopkeeper who went out of their way to put me on the right path when I pulled up and begged directions in broken Arabic.

Virginia Maxwell

Many thanks to Peter Handsaker and Pat Yale, who accompanied me on two research trips to Israel for this job, as well as to my expert co-author Daniel Robinson and to locals Mira Marcus, Oren Mor, Yael Biedermann, Maoz Inon, Yaron Burgin, Naomi Dvora, Gal Mor, Lee Balot, Yoash Limon and Omer from the Overstay.

Jenny Walker

Returning to Petra is always a great pleasure, not just on account of the spectacular ancient city, but also because the people of Wadi Musa and Umm Sayoun live up to their reputation for 'heart and wit'. Thanks as ever to all Jordanian friends who have helped over the years of engagement with this chapter and to my beloved husband, Sam Owen, who accompanied and supported as ever during research and write-up.
