SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travellers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-travelled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to postal submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don't want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. For a copy of our privacy policy visit lonelyplanet.com/privacy.

AUTHOR THANKS

Emilie Filou

In Madagascar, big thanks to Patricia Rajeriarison for many useful introductions; to Mikaia Rasolofomanana for putting me in the good hands of driver extraordinaire Harrison Randrianandrasana, who was great company and full of judicious advice. Thanks also to fellow authors Anthony Ham and Helen Ranger for such a great partnership. Back home, immense thanks to Moon and Loli, who went beyond the call of grandmother duty, and most importantly, to Adolfo and Sasha for letting me do this.

Anthony Ham

Thanks to Matt Phillips for such a long and fruitful shared love of Africa, and to my expert co-authors Emilie Filou and Helen Ranger. In Madagascar, thanks to my indefatigable drivers, Mino and Rijja, and to Mikaia Rasolofamana for making sure all went smoothly. Thanks also to David Andrew, Maxence Bigey, Toussaint, Dario and Valerio, and for the kindness shown to me and assistance given by numerous anything-but-ordinary local people. Thanks to Marina, Carlota, Valentina, Jan and Lisa for such love and support and for getting me home. My work on this book is dedicated to my father and faithful follower of my journeys, Ron Ham, who died soon after my return from Madagascar.

Helen Ranger

Thanks to Matt Phillips for the opportunity to return to this fascinating country, and to fellow authors Emilie and Anthony. On the road, Jules Randrianirina – with whom I saw much more of the country than anticipated – was unstintingly helpful and a superb driver over rough pistes and dubious bridges. Germain Raharison in Sambava, Patrick Randriamboavonjy in Tamatave, Marcine Cooper on Nosy Be and Orpheu Todivelou in Ambodifotatra shared their knowledge generously. Striking Air Madagascar crew get no cigars.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Emilie Filou

Coordinating Writer, Antananarivo, Central Madagascar Emilie first travelled to Africa aged eight to visit her grandparents, who had taken up a late-career opportunity in Mali. Many trips and a geography degree later, Emilie now works as a freelance journalist focusing on development issues in Africa (read her work at www.emiliefilou.com). For this trip, Emilie loved discovering the central plateaux of Madagascar, especially taking the (very) slow train from Manakara to Fianarantsoa and buying wild silk in the remote village of Soatanana; her highlight was watching dawn break from the top of Pic Boby (Imarivolantitra) in Parc National d'Andringitra. Emilie also wrote the Plan, Understand and Survival Guide sections.

Anthony Ham

Southern Madagascar, Western Madagascar Anthony (www.anthonham.com) brings to Madagascar sixteen years of travelling through, writing about and photographing in Africa. His passion for the continent began in North and West Africa, and more recently he has travelled extensively through East and Southern Africa and Indian Ocean islands, writing about natural history and conservation issues, nomadic and indigenous peoples and countries in conflict, for newspapers and magazines around the world. When he's not in Africa, Anthony moves between Melbourne and Madrid with his wife and two daughters.

Helen Ranger

Northern Madagascar, Eastern Madagascar In three visits to Madagascar, Helen has researched rainforest essential oils, been woken by the eerie cries of indris in the Parc National Andasibe Mantadia, been marooned on a remote beach in the Masoala National Park, marvelled over a bright red giraffe-necked weevil, peered at ornate tombs and travelled by small plane, taxi-brousse and pousse-pousse. This time Air Madagascar's month-long strike meant travelling by pot-holed road and seeing much more of the country at ground level – a bone-rattling blessing in disguise. Find Helen at www.helenranger.com and on Twitter @helenranger.
