SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travellers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-travelled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to your submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don't want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. ## WRITER THANKS

Anthony Ham

Sincere and undying thanks to Matt Phillips who keeps sending me to places like this and for years of shared passions. In Mauritius, special thanks to Deon in Trou aux Biches, Laval and Françoise Baptiste in Rodrigues, Teddy and Shekti in Rodrigues, and Dr Vikash Tatayah of the Mauritian Wildlife Foundation. To Jan, for keeping the home fires burning and for a lifetime of sacrifice. And to Marina, Carlota and Valentina, my companions on the road – os adoro.

Jean-Bernard Carillet

Big thanks to all the people I met while on the road for their tips and recommendations, including Jean-Paul and Axelle, Cosimo, Isabelle Dupuis and Elsie. At LP, thanks to Matt Phillips for his trust and all the editors and cartos for their commitment. A heartfelt merci beaucoup to fellow author Anthony, who is a pleasure to work with. Last but not least, a gros bisou to my daughter Eva, who's also in love with Réunion.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Anthony Ham

Mauritius, Rodrigues, Seychelles Anthony is an experienced travel and nature writer who has written or contributed to more than 100 Lonely Planet guidebooks, including Madagascar, and Mauritius, Réunion & Seychelles and almost two dozen African countries. When he's not writing for Lonely Planet, Anthony writes about Africa, the Middle East, Spain and Scandinavia for newspapers and magazines around the world. His particular passions are wildlife, wild places and searching for remote corners of the earth. Find out more about him at www.anthonham.com.

Jean-Bernard Carillet

Réunion, Seychelles Paris-based journalist and photographer Jean-Bernard has clocked up numerous trips to the Indian Ocean and written extensively about Réunion and the Seychelles. Being a diving instructor, he was all too happy to check out the best dive sites in the region for this guide, before putting on his hiking shoes to explore the rugged Cirques in Réunion. In the Seychelles, he searched for the perfect beach, the best grilled fish, the most romantic spot and the best-value hotels. Jean-Bernard has contributed to many Lonely Planet titles, both in French and in English.
