OUR READERS

Many thanks to the travelers who used the last edition and wrote to us with helpful hints, useful advice and interesting anecdotes: Adrian Toutoungi, Denise Crawford, Elizabeth Johnson, Henry Luiker, Jean-Marc East, Jeff Jones, Jim Floyd, Marc Bartschat, Michael Graupner, Noam Schimmel, Sabrina Olender.

AUTHOR THANKS

Regis St Louis

Although I researched my sections during the coldest days of the year, the warmth and kindness of locals and friends made up for the polar temperatures. Special thanks to Catherine Binette and Patricia Maunder for extensive city insight, and the many Quebecers who shared tips: Jaaron, Roberto, Sarah, Emily, Saman, Isabelle and Jeremy. Thanks also to Thibault and Marine for their kind hospitality, and Gregor for a fun meet-up on the road. Big thanks to Cassandra, Magda and Genevieve, who make homecomings the best part of travel.

Gregor Clark

Un grand merci to the many people who shared their love and knowledge of Québec with me, especially Lucien and Daniel Beaumont and Catherine Binette. Back home, big hugs to Gaen, Meigan and Chloe, who helped me immeasurably in exploring Québec City's wintry streets and honing my skills on the ice slides at Winter Carnival.

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Regis St Louis

Coordinating Author A long-time admirer of the free-spirited ethos that rules Québec, Regis has fallen hard for Montréal. He never tires of exploring the city's tree-lined neighborhoods, munching his way through its markets and cycling its many bike lanes. On this recent trip, he experienced Montréal's coldest February in history (what's -20C among friends?), joined the all-night revelry of Nuit Blanche and admired enchanting wintry landscapes in city parks. Regis has contributed to dozens of Lonely Planet titles, including a previous edition of Montréal & Québec City. When not exploring the back lanes of Québec, he resides in Brooklyn, New York.

Gregor Clark

Québec City, Day Trips from Montréal A lifelong Francophile and a resident of neighboring Vermont, Gregor has long been smitten with Québec and regularly hops across the border for doses of French-Canadian culture. Québec City remains one of his favorite North American cities (alongside San Francisco). He especially enjoyed sharing Winter Carnival with family while researching this edition. Gregor has written three dozen Lonely Planet guides since 2000, mostly focused on Europe and Latin America. He also wrote the Understand and Survival Guide sections of this guide.

Canal de Lachine Montréal D10
6 This historical waterway dates from 1825, but these days the 14km-long canal path plays host to hordes of walkers, cyclists and inline skaters, while flotillas of pleasure- and sightseeing-boats glide along its calm waters. (M Lionel-Groulx)

Old Port Montréal M9
7 There's always something happening at Montréal's Old Port: see Cirque du Soleil, visit a science museum, hop on a boat cruise, pamper yourself in a floating spa or park yourself in a cafe and do some serious people-watching. (M Champ-de-Mars or Place-d'Armes)

Parc Jean-Drapeau Montréal R11
8 Spend a day exploring this collection of island parks in the St Lawrence River, which features forested walking and cycling trails, the historical Stewart Museum, la Ronde amusement park (with the world's tallest wooden rollercoaster) and the Casino de Montréal. (M Jean-Drapeau)

Le Château Frontenac Québec City G4
9 Québec City's most luxurious hotel and iconic tourist site. Le Château Frontenac's fabulous turrets and multiple wings complement its dramatic location. (☎418-692-3861; www.fairmont.com/frontenac; 1 Rue des Carrières; admission free to lobby, bar & restaurant)

La Citadelle Québec City F6
