Top Itineraries

Day One

Kremlin & Kitay Gorod (p46)

 Arrive at the Kremlin ticket office at 9.30am sharp to reserve your times to enter the Armoury and Ivan the Great Bell Tower. Dedicate your morning to admiring the amazing architecture, gawking at the gold and gems and climbing the tower for sweeping city views. End your Kremlin visit with a stroll through Alexander Garden and a stop to witness the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Exiting Alexander Garden, jump right into the queue on Red Square for Lenin's Tomb before it closes at 1pm.

Lunch Have lunch at Bosco Cafe (p70); or at Stolovaya 57 (p70).

Kremlin & Kitay Gorod (p46)

 If you eat at Bosco, linger as long as you like, ogling the Kremlin spires and St Basil's domes. If you wish to see what goes on inside the cathedral, you can do so after lunch. Otherwise, stroll through the ancient streets of Kitay Gorod, discovering the countless 17th-century churches.

Dinner Dine at a restaurant on ul Petrovka, like Barashka (p79).

Tverskoy (p73)

 Get tickets in advance to see a classic opera or a contemporary ballet at the world-famous Bolshoi Theatre. Or pamper yourself with a steam at the Banya at Sanduny.

Day Two

Khamovniki (p102)

 A beautiful 17th-century bell tower is the beacon that will guide you to the historic fortress of Novodevichy Convent, which contains nearly five centuries of history. After admiring the art and architecture, head next door to the eponymous cemetery, where many famous political and cultural figures are laid to rest.

Lunch Indulge in a delicious sweet or savoury pie from Stolle (p117).

Dorogomilovo (p147)

 Make your way across the river to Kievsky vokzal, where you can hop on board the ferry (p231) that cruises the Moscow River. The 90-minute trip takes you past Novodevichy Convent, Gorky Park, the Church of Christ the Saviour, Red October and the Kremlin, before turning around at Novospassky Monastery.

Dinner Sample scrumptious Georgian cuisine at Genatsvale on Arbat (p113).

Arbat (p102)

 Imagine you are in a traditional Georgian mountain village – at Genatsvale on Arbat it's not so difficult to do, as the restaurant provides the setting, as well as the delectable Georgian fare. After dinner you can stroll along Moscow's most famous street – the Arbat – enjoying the talents of buskers and the atmosphere of old Moscow.

Day Three

Zamoskvorechie (p121)

 Get an early start to beat the crowds to the Tretyakov Gallery. Take your time inspecting the icons, examining the Peredvizhniki, marvelling at the Russian Revival and ogling the avant-garde.

Lunch Grably (p129) and vegetarian Sok (p129) for a post-museum meal.

Zamoskvorechie (p121)

 After lunch, stroll over to Art Muz-eon Sculpture Park, where you can stand eye-to-eye with the Soviet heroes and admire their more whimsical contemporary counterparts. Then head across the street to Gorky Park for an afternoon of bicycle riding or boat paddling. At the southern end of the park, Chaikhona No 1 offers the perfect place to regroup.

Dinner Snag a table on the rooftop terrace at Strelka Bar (p130).

Zamoskvorechie (p121)

 The former Red October factory is now the city's hottest nightlife spot, jam-packed with eating, drinking and entertainment venues. Let yourself wander, stopping here for drinks, there for dinner, and somewhere else for dessert. Explore the galleries. Rock the bar scene. Have fun.

Day Four

Izmailovo (p138)

 Reserve the morning for shopping at the Vernisage Market, crammed with souvenir stalls selling everything from silver samovars to Soviet propaganda posters to modern pop-culture matrioshkas. Inside the Kremlin at Izmailovo, you can also learn about the art of making vodka (and sample the results) at the Vodka History Museum.

Lunch Izmaylovo market is famous for the grilled shashlyk (kebabs).

Izmailovo (p138)

 For the afternoon, you have booked a tour of Stalin's Bunker, hidden away underneath the All-Union stadium. If you're not able to make these arrangements, you can head over to Izmailovsky Park for a picnic and a walk in the woods.

Dinner Reserve your table for an haut russe feast at Café Pushkin (p96).

Presnya (p90)

 End your time in Moscow with an evening at Pushkin Cafe, Moscow's best place to sample old-fashioned Russian cuisine. Indulge in a multicourse medley that might include bliny (crepes) with caviar, a hearty soup, meat or fish in a rich sauce, and plenty of vodka shots. If you're still standing afterwards, enjoy an after-dinner drink and a fabulous vista from O2 Lounge in the Ritz-Carlton Moscow.
