Top Itineraries

Day One

Upper West Side & Central Park (p228)

 Spend the morning exploring the wonders of Central Park, taking in the fortresslike walls of skyscrapers surrounding the green. Start at Columbus Circle, then head in the northeast direction passing the Central Park Zoo, the Bethesda Fountain, the Conservatory Water and Strawberry Fields on the western side. If you have the kids in tow, check out the dinosaur skeletons at the American Museum of Natural History then hit up the Loeb Boathouse to rent rowboats for a paddle around the lake.

Lunch Pick up supplies at Zabar's (p236) for a picnic in Central Park.

Midtown (p175)

 It's now time to uncover some of the city's architectural wonders: Grand Central Terminal, the Chrysler Building, the New York Public Library and Rockefeller Center. Round off the afternoon with a visit to the city's museum darling: MoMA.

Dinner For Broadway-goers, do an early dinner at ViceVersa (p199).

Midtown (p175)

 Spend the evening under the starry lights of Broadway, checking out a blockbuster show or something distinctly ahead of the curve at Playwrights Horizons or Signature Theatre. Soak up the Las Vegas-like atmosphere of Times Square from the TKTS Booth, swig cocktails at Rum House, then climb to the top of the Empire State Building to wish the city goodnight.

Day Two

Upper East Side (p211)

 Start at the staggering Metropolitan Museum of Art. Wander through the Egyptian and Roman collections, take in European masters, then head up to the rooftop (in summer) for a view over Central Park. Afterwards, visit the nearby Neue Galerie for a feast of German and Austrian art in a 1914 mansion.

Lunch Lunch on Austrian specialties at elegant Café Sabarsky (p223).

SoHo & Chinatown (p83)

 Head down to SoHo for an afternoon of shopping along Prince and Spring Sts amid crowds of tourists seeking the best brands in the world. Wander over to Chinatown's Mulberry St, which feels worlds away from mainstream consumerism, but is – in reality – only a few blocks over. Stroll by the neighborhood's Buddhist temples, stopping for custard tarts and almond ice cream.

Dinner Savor soup dumplings at Joe's Shanghai (p96), a Chinatown staple.

Upper West Side & Central Park (p228)

 If you have concert tickets, then skip dinner downtown and hit up Barcibo Enoteca for a preshow glass of expertly curated Italian wine. Then it's off to the Lincoln Center for opera at the Metropolitan Opera House or a symphony in Avery Fisher Hall. Later, dine at Burke & Wills for modern Australian cuisine, followed by drinks upstairs at the Manhattan Cricket Club.

Day Three

Brooklyn (p263)

 Catch the East River Ferry over to Dumbo, and admire the magnificent view of Manhattan from the lush new Brooklyn Bridge Park. Afterwards, stroll through the cobblestone streets of Dumbo, browsing bookshops, boutiques and cafes. Don't miss the vintage Jane's Carousel and more great views from the Empire Fulton Ferry.

Lunch Fill up on good-value lunch specials at atmospheric AIMar (p283).

Brooklyn (p263)

 Travel up to the Brooklyn Museum for a look at fascinating works from Africa, the Americas and Ancient Egypt, plus excellent temporary shows. Afterwards take a stroll in Prospect Park, pausing for refreshments at the scenic new Lakeside complex.

Dinner Partake of Brooklyn's culinary renaissance at Marlow & Sons (p279).

Brooklyn (p263)

 Jump in a Boro Taxi up to Williamsburg, on the northern side of the borough, for oysters and bespoke cocktails at Maison Premiere. Head up to rooftop bar, the Ides, for a fabulous view over the city. End the night across the street at the Brooklyn Bowl, with a side of bowling and some groovy musical acts.

Day Four

Lower Manhattan & the Financial District (p62)

 Catch the Staten Island Ferry in the early morning and watch the sun come up over Lower Manhattan. Then head skyward for a marvelous view from the One World Observatory. Afterwards, visit the moving National September 11 Memorial & Museum.

Lunch Munch on gourmet goodies at the food-loving Chelsea Market (p148).

West Village, Chelsea & the Meatpacking District (p130)

 Head up to the Meatpacking District and visit the gorgeous new Whitney Museum of American Art. Afterwards, take the nearby steps up to the High Line for a wander along a once abandoned rail line. Along the way stop for Dinner Dine on high-end bistro fare at the atmospheric Minetta Tavern (p148).

West Village, Chelsea & the Meatpacking District (p130)

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Regis St Louis

East Village & Lower East Side; West Village, Chelsea & the Meatpacking District; Upper East Side; Upper West Side & Central Park; Brooklyn

A Hoosier by birth, Regis grew up in a sleepy riverside town where he dreamed of big-city intrigue and small, expensive apartments. In 2001, he settled in New York, which had all that and more. Since then he has explored vast swaths of the city, from the Bronx to Brighton Beach, ever in search of both classic and bizarre NYC experiences. Regis' work has appeared in over 50 Lonely Planet guidebooks, and he has also written for many other organizations, including the BBC, the Telegraph and the Chicago Tribune. When not on the road, Regis splits his time between Brooklyn and New Orleans.

Cristian Bonetto

Lower Manhattan & the Financial District; SoHo & Chinatown; Union Square, Flatiron District & Gramercy; Midtown; Harlem & Upper Manhattan

Cristian has played both visitor and local in New York City, a place that won his heart way back in his Sesame Street diaper days. Indeed, his passion for the city saw New York Magazine name him one of the 'Reasons to Love New York' in 2014. Gotham's constant reinvention continues to feed an insatiable curiosity, one that has seen the one-time scriptwriter shed light on everything from lesser-known art collections to cognoscenti dumpling dens. Cristian also contributed to the Planning and Sleeping sections, as well as writing the Understand New York City features. He tweets at twitter.com/cristianbonetto

Zora O'Neill

Queens; Day Trips

Zora O'Neill moved to New York City in 1998, and moved immediately to Astoria, Queens. She still loves it every day, because she can eat great food and buy fresh produce 24 hours a day. Zora has written guidebooks since 2002; for Lonely Planet, she has covered Amsterdam, southern Spain and Egypt. She is the author of All Strangers Are Kin, a travel memoir about studying Arabic and traveling in the Arab world. She is online at www.zoraoneill.com.
