AUTHOR THANKS

Charles Rawlings-Way

Thanks to the many generous, knowledgeable and quietly self-assured Kiwis I met on the road, especially the staff at the Hastings, Whanganui and New Plymouth i-SITEs who flew through my questions with the greatest of ease. Huge thanks to Tasmin Waby for signing me up, and the in-house LP content deities who electrified this CMS Frankenstein. Humongous gratitude to my tireless, witty and professional co-authors – Lee, Sarah, Peter and Brett – who always bring the humour and the class. Most of all, thanks to Meg, lone and Remy for holding the fort while I was away.

Brett Atkinson

Thanks to all of the i-SITE, DOC and information centre staff who patiently answered all my questions. Cheers to the innovative chefs and inspired craft brewers of New Zealand for sustenance on the road, and to Carol for support on occasional beach, island, capital city and Hobbit-inspired getaways. Thanks to my fellow authors, the wittiest crew one could aspire to work with, and my appreciation to Tasmin Waby at Lonely Planet for the opportunity to again explore my Kiwi backyard.

Sarah Bennett & Lee Slater

Thanks to everyone who helped us on the road, including tourism organisations, DOC and visitor centre staff, business operators and travellers. Thanks also to friends and family who provided a park for the campervan, a fridge for the flagon, and company on vital research missions. Finally, thanks to our fellow NZ authors for the camaraderie, as always, and Tasmin Waby for leading the team.

Peter Dragicevich

I owe a great deal of thanks to Hamish, Jill and John Blennerhassett in Wanaka, Scott and Sophie Kennedy in Queenstown, Michael Wilson in Invercargill, and Joanne and Phil Cole on Waiheke Island. Special thanks to Michael Woodhouse for his comradeship on the road in Otago. And to all of my Auckland friends and family who enthusiastically supped and gorged with me in the city's bars and restaurants, good work!

Contributing Writers

Professor James Belich wrote the History chapter. James is one of NZ's pre-eminent historians and the award-winning author of The New Zealand Wars, Making Peoples and Paradise Reforged. He has also worked in TV – New Zealand Wars was screened in NZ in 1998.

Tony Horwitz wrote the Captain James Cook boxed text in the History chapter. Tony is a Pulitzer-prize winning reporter and nonfiction author. His fascination with James Cook, and with travel, took him around NZ, Australia and the Pacific while researching Blue Latitudes (alternatively titled Into the Blue), part biography of Cook and part travelogue.

John Huria (Ngai Tahu, Muaupoko) wrote the Māori Culture chapter. John has an editorial, research and writing background with a focus on Māori writing and culture. He was senior editor for Māori publishing company Huia and now runs an editorial and publishing services company, Ahi Text Solutions Ltd (www.ahitextsolutions.co.nz).

Josh Kronfeld wrote the Surfing the North Island boxed text in the Extreme Sports on the North Island chapter. Josh is an ex-All Black flanker, whose passion for surfing NZ's beaches is legendary and who found travelling for rugby a way to surf other great breaks around the world.

Gareth Shute wrote the Music section in the Arts & Music chapter. Gareth is the author of four books, including Hip Hop Music in Aotearoa and NZ Rock 1987–2007. He is also a musician and has toured the UK, Europe and Australia as a member of the Ruby Suns and the Brunettes. He now plays in indie soul group The Cosbys.

Vaughan Yarwood wrote the Environment chapter. Vaughan is an Auckland-based writer whose books include The History Makers: Adventures in New Zealand Biography, The Best of New Zealand: A Collection of Essays on NZ Life and Culture by Prominent Kiwis, which he edited, and the regional history Between Coasts: From Kaipara to Kawaii. He has written widely for NZ and international publications and is the former associate editor of New Zealand Geographic, for which he has also written for many years.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Charles Rawlings-Way

Taranaki & Whanganui, East Coast, Wellington Region English by birth, Australian by chance, All Blacks fan by choice: Charles's early understanding of Aotearoa was less than comprehensive (sheep, mountains, sheep on mountains...). He realised there was more to it when a wandering uncle returned with a faux-jade tiki in 1981. He wore it with pride until he saw the NZ cricket team's beige uniforms in 1982... Mt Taranaki's snowy summit, Napier's art-deco deliverance and Whanganui's raffish charm have helped him forgive: he's once again smitten with the country's phantasmal landscapes, disarming locals and its determination to sculpt its own political and indigenous destiny. Charles also wrote the Planning chapters (with the exception of Hiking and Extreme Sports on the North Island), NZ Today, Arts & Music and Survival Guide.

Brett Atkinson

Bay of Islands & Northland, Waikato & the Coromandel Peninsula, Taupo & the Central Plateau, Rotorua & the Bay of Plenty Born in Rotorua, but now a proud resident of Auckland, Brett explored the top half of New Zealand's North Island for this edition. Excursions to Northland, the Coromandel Peninsula and Tongariro National Park echoed family holidays from an earlier century, and rediscovering his home town also evoked great memories. Brett's contributed to Lonely Planet guidebooks spanning Europe, Asia and the Pacific, and covered around 50 countries as a food and travel writer. See www.brett-atkinson.net for his latest adventures.

Sarah Bennett & Lee Slater

Sarah and Lee specialise in NZ travel, with a particular focus on outdoor adventure including hiking, mountain biking and camping. In addition to five editions of the New Zealand guidebook, they are also co-authors of Lonely Planet's Hiking & Tramping in New Zealand and New Zealand's Best Trips. Read more at www.bennettandslater.co.nz. Sarah and Lee wrote Hiking on the North Island and Extreme Sports on the North Island.

Peter Dragicevich

Auckland After nearly a decade working for off-shore publishing companies, Peter's life has come full circle, returning to his home city of Auckland. As managing editor of Express newspaper he spent much of the '90s writing about the local arts, club and bar scenes. Peter has contributed to several editions of the New Zealand guidebook and, after dozens of Lonely Planet assignments, it remains his favourite gig.
