

Behind the Scenes

SEND US YOUR FEEDBACK

We love to hear from travelers – your comments keep us on our toes and help make our books better. Our well-traveled team reads every word on what you loved or loathed about this book. Although we cannot reply individually to your submissions, we always guarantee that your feedback goes straight to the appropriate authors, in time for the next edition. Each person who sends us information is thanked in the next edition – the most useful submissions are rewarded with a selection of digital PDF chapters.

Visit lonelyplanet.com/contact to submit your updates and suggestions or to ask for help. Our award-winning website also features inspirational travel stories, news and discussions.

Note: We may edit, reproduce and incorporate your comments in Lonely Planet products such as guidebooks, websites and digital products, so let us know if you don't want your comments reproduced or your name acknowledged. For a copy of our privacy policy visit lonelyplanet.com/privacy.

AUTHOR THANKS

Bridget Gleeson

Thank you to La Esperanza Granada for providing such a positive first impression of Nicaragua, and to all the local families I worked with there, years ago, for their kindness and patience as I learned Spanish. Thanks to the staff at Rosita's in San Juan del Sur for helping me out of a jam, and to all the travelers and Lonely Planet readers I met on the road – your advice and perspective helped me, and your enthusiasm for Nicaragua inspired me.

Alex Egerton

On the ground in Nicaragua, thanks go out to Juan Lasso, Rafi, Z, Edwin, Stijn, Floris Weebbers, Rupert Allen, Marjiory, Juana Boyd, all the staff at Cuculmeca and Arjen; on the home-front, big thanks to Nicholas and Olga.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Bridget Gleeson

Managua, Masaya & Los Pueblos Blancos, Granada, Southwestern Nicaragua, León & Northwestern Nicaragua Based in Buenos Aires, Bridget is a travel writer and occasional photographer. Her first experiences in Latin America were in Nicaragua. She lived, worked, and learned to speak Spanish in Granada before moving on to South America; this assignment was a welcome opportunity to return to the place where the great adventure started. Bridget also researched the Plan Your Trip and Understand chapters.

Alex Egerton

Northern Highlands, Caribbean Coast, San Carlos, Islas Solentiname & the Río San Juan A journalist by trade, Alex has been visiting Nicaragua for more than a decade and has spent many periods based in the country while working as a travel writer in Latin America. He has explored villages from Nueva Segovia to Río San Juan, paddled through the remote rivers in the Bosawás, eaten tons of gallo pinto and ridden on the roof of countless chicken buses. Alex still visits Nicaragua regularly, especially the Caribbean Coast, which keeps luring him back with the simple pleasures of cold beers, warm soup and hot dancehall tunes. Alex also researched the Survival Guide chapters.
