GreenDex

GOING GREEN

Want your travels in the Arabian Peninsula to make a difference? Want to feel that your hard-earned cash is going to help preserve and protect the region's cultural and natural heritage?

You can do just that by spending your money in places where it will have a positive social, cultural or environmental effect. Just consult the GreenDex listing below before making a hotel reservation or choosing where to shop to see whether Lonely Planet authors have given it the green thumbs up. All the listings have been chosen for their support of local and traditional communities, their nonprofit-making status, their sound environmental practices, or simply because they demonstrate an active sustainable-tourism policy.

If you would like to contribute to this list for future editions, we'd love to hear from you. Email us at talk2us@lonelyplanet.com.au. For more about sustainable tourism and Lonely Planet, see www.lonelyplanet.com/responsibletravel.
